By the King of Pruſſia, Captain Robinſon, arrived here from London; and the Captains Davis and Green, arrived at New-York, from the ſame Place, we have the following Advices.

WARSAW, June 23.

THE Confederacy of Lithuania has detached a body of 1000 men, among whom there are 300 Ruſſians, in order to beſiege Niſchwitz, a town belonging to the Prince Radzivil, Palatine of Wilna; the town ſurrendered the 9th of this month; but the garriſon, conſiſting of 300 men, retired into the caſtle, which is ſurrounded with marſhes, well provided with neceſſaries, and acceſſible only upon one ſide, where the Ruſſians made an attempt, but were ſaluted with cannon charged with cartridge ſhot, which made them retreat a quarter of a league, and it is ſuppoſed they are waiting for a reinforcement. In the mean time Prince Radzivil is ſet out from Biala, where he has publiſhed a manifeſto againſt thoſe that attack him with the aſſiſtance of foreign troops, and is marching at the head of 8000 men to raiſe the ſiege of Niſchwitz, where he reckons to arrive the 26th of this month. In his way thither he carried off a regiment at Thereſpol, the reſidence of Count Flemming, High-Treaſurer of Lithuania, with four pieces of cannon, new uniforms, and arms for 1200 men, ſix barrels of powder, ſome horſes and money. Upon an eſtate belonging to M. Chodkienſki, Colonel of the Confederacy, he alſo took 100 men, and the equipages of this officer, who is actually a Nuncio at the Dyet.

It is expected that Prince Radzivil's party will increaſe as he advances into Lithuania, for he has many friends that have invited him to come. The Palatine of Breſk has made a counter-confederacy in his favour. A detachment of 1000 Ruſſians are going from hence againſt him; but he is informed of it, and makes preparations to give them a proper reception. He has wrote a letter to the King of Pruſſia, wherein he claims the guaranty of his eſtates, which that Monarch is charged with ſince the convention with the Houſe of Newburgh.

Prince Radzivil has intercepted a Ruſſian officer with diſpatches, the contents of which we do not yet know.

Cadiz, June 5. For the better ſecurity of our eſtabliſhments in America, the court has again demanded three or four officers out of every regiment belonging to the crown, who are to be ſent there with a number of draughts which have been made out of the different corps, as well as out of the eight regiments which form the garriſons of this province. All theſe troops are to be embarked at Alicant, where their head quarters are fixed. It is ſaid alſo, that all the regiments have orders to ſend the deſerters belonging to their reſpective corps to St. Lucar de Barrhmeda, where they will be embarked for the ſaid ſettlements.

Genoa, June 25. Eight men were killed, and twelve wounded, by the blowing up of 3 barrels of powder belonging to the Rebels at the ſiege of fort St. Florentius. That fort ſtill holds out; it has 500 men.

What has been ſaid relating to the Corſican Rebels having proclaimed Paoli their Doge, is not confirmed: But it is true, that in their General Aſſembly they have elected him General, or perpetual Dictator, and Chief of a Sovereign Council of State, to conſiſt of three annual Senators, and of ſeveral Counſellors, who are to be changed every four months. The plan of their new form of government contains 36 articles.

Barcelona, June 26. Don Diego de la Torre brought an Algerine galliot into this port yeſterday, which he took off Cape Palamos. The crew conſiſted of Levantine Turks, 18 of whom were killed, and 10 wounded.

Warſaw, June 27. At the cloſing of the Diet of Convocation, the Prince Primate cauſed a Propoſal to be read for a general confederacy, for the maintenance of the reſolutions that had been agreed on, touching the rights of the church, the repoſe of the kingdom, and the election of a King. This was approved, and the Prince Czartorinſki, Waywode of Poliſh Ruſſia, was unanimouſly choſen marſhal. This confederacy will ſoon be joined by that of Lithuania; and all the cities even thoſe of Royal Pruſſia, will be invited to accede to it.

Dantzick, June 28. The troubles of this kingdom are now riſen to ſuch a height, that it is feared they cannot be terminated without the interpoſition of ſome ſuperior force.

According to a letter from Warſaw, a conſiderable body of Ruſſians, under the generals Rennecamp, Brill, and Apraxin, have advanced beyond Minſk; and another column is drawing towards Novogrod. They conſiſt of cavalry and infantry, and have a large train of artillery.

Paris, July 6. A Poliſh gentleman, from Warſaw, is arrived at Compeigne, charged to deliver to the King a letter from the Prince Primate of Poland, tending, as ſuppoſed, to juſtify the conduct of that Prelate, towards the marquis Paulmy d'Argenſon, late ambaſſador of France to the Republick; but he has not yet been able to obtain an audience of his Majeſty, nor to preſent the letter with which he is charged.

By letters from Montevideo, on the river Plata, dated the 2d of January laſt, we learn, that Mr. de Bougainville, brother to the late Academician of that name, having ſet ſail from St. Malo laſt Autumn, in order to fulfil a ſecret commiſſion, was preparing to form a ſettlement in the iſles of Malouines, in the ſtrait of Magellan, with ſo much the more juſtice, as the name of theſe iſles, which are abſolutely deſart, indicated that they belonged to France, and conſequently that he could take poſſeſſion of them as well by this title as that of firſt occupant; and that he intended to land there ſome perſons of both ſexes, in order to form a colony.

From the Oder, July 6. The body of Auſtrian troops that is aſſembling on the frontiers of Hungary and Poland, conſiſts of thirty thouſand men, under the command of General Laudon, who, it is ſaid, will ſoon meet with a body of Pruſſian troops to obſerve his motions.

According to letters from Conſtantinople, the Pruſſian Miniſter there expects an office from his Majeſty.

From the Lower Elbe, July 13. According to ſome advices from Poland, Count Braſnicki, Grand General of the crown, ſtill preſerves his poſition on the confines of Hungary; according to others, he has retired into that kingdom; and the troops that were under his command have joined thoſe of the Republic. At the ſame time we are told, that he has concluded an accommodation with the Czartorinſky party. But all theſe different accounts want dates and other particulars requiſite to gain them credit.

However, we have letters from Thorn of the 4th inſt. which poſitively ſay, that the artillery of the Crown, which the Grand General had ſent to Marienburgh, repaſſed under the ſame eſcort the 28th of laſt month before the city of Thorn, in order to be brought back to Warſaw by command of Prince Czartorinſky, Grand Regimentary, and Marſhal of the general confederacy.

Hamburgh, July 13. We have juſt received the important news, that the Count Braſnicki, Grand General of Poland, having retired into Hungary, the troops of the crown have joined the forces of the Dyet of Convocation, and acknowledged the authority of Prince Czartorinſky the Grand Regimentary; ſo that the troubles of Poland are ſuppoſed to be ended, unleſs ſome other foreign troops ſhould be ſent thither, which is not probable. As to the buſtle made by Prince Radzivil, he has not a force ſufficient to carry his point.

Paris, July 15. Among the other extenſive and beneficial ſchemes now upon the carpet, Monſ. de la Verdie, Comptroller-General of the Finances, has much at heart, a project for opening a very lucrative trade to the Spaniſh Philippines, negotiations for which have for ſome months paſt been in agitation.

LONDON.

July 17. Saturday laſt the London packet, Caliſ, from Boſton, and Glouceſter, Lilly, from Virginia, arrived off Dover.

They write from Peterſbourg, that they had an account from China, that the Emperor would receive an Ambaſſador from Ruſſia; but had not declared that he would ſend one to the Court of Ruſſia.

All the accounts from Poland, and the little diſpoſition remarked in either party to come to an accommodatiton, ſeem to forebode, that the interval between the Dyet of Convocation and that of Election will be very turbulent and outrageous.

July 18. In conſequence of the new regulations in the marine, it is ſaid, each rate in the navy, from a ſloop of eight guns to a ſhip of one hundred, are to be furniſhed with a double ſuit of ſails and rigging, to be carefully laid up in the King's yards, in the moſt noted ports in the Channel; ſo that every ſhip may be immediately ſupplied with all convenient furniture, according to her rate, in caſe of any accident at ſea, without that delay and confuſion formerly experienced in affairs of the navy.

It is reported that ſome Engliſh men of war will ſoon make their appearance in the Baltic, in caſe France ſhould perſiſt in certain views ſaid to be very intereſting with regard to the affairs of Poland.

Many of the moſt conſiderable politicians in Germany believe, that though his Pruſſian Majeſty ſeems entirely taken up with plans of oeconomy, commercial projects, and other ſchemes for domeſtic improvements, he has, beſides theſe, ſome other great deſigns at heart. They are led to this, from obſerving that his moſt experienced Generals have frequent conferences with his Majeſty; that a conſiderable number of his beſt regiments are in Sileſia; and that the Duke of Mecklenburgh takes no notice whatever of the recruits raiſed by Pruſſian officers throughout the whole extent of his dominions.

July 19. Private letters from the Hague mention many rumours current there, but which ſtand much in need of confirmation before they meet with credit. One is, that the Khan of the Crim Tartars is actually aſſembling an army of 60,000 men on the frontiers of Poland; and that the late Crown-General, Count Branicki, has, or pretends to have, an Aga from the Turkiſh Court at his head-quarters. Another is, that a counter-alliance into which five powers are ſaid to have entered, has been formed to balance that which was lately concluded between the Courts of Peterſburgh and Berlin. A third, that the Court of Verſailles will ſpeedily march a very large corps at the requiſition of the Empreſs Queen; but where, or againſt whom, theſe troops are to be employed, cannot be eaſily determined. In the mean time it is pretty certain, that conſiderable remittances have been lately made into the North, for purpoſes that may be eaſily conjectured.

An Engliſh Engineer at Dunkirk, in a letter dated the 13th inſtant, ſays "We continue to go on here with the demolition of the King's baſon, and daily hold arguments with the French Engineers upon the ſubject of ſome other works to be deſtroyed."

Letters from Toulon, dated the 28th, adviſe, that M. de l'Eſcouet ſailed from Breſt the 5th of May laſt for Cadiz, from whence he was to ſail on a ſecret deſtination, with the Sceptre of 70 guns, and the Solitaire and Union, of 64 guns each.

The Dyet of Convocation at Warſaw, before it broke up, authoriſed the Primate to aſſemble the Arrier-Ban, if the ſafety and tranquility of the kingdom ſhould require it.

When it was propoſed in the Dyet of Warſaw to leſſen the authority of the Great-Generals, it met with a very ſtrong oppoſition, and one Nuncio ſaid, "Gentlemen, you want to deſtroy "the only power there is between the King and the Nation; we "clearly ſee to what all this tends."

July 20. Wedneſday an eſtate belonging to John Wilkes, Eſq; ſituated in Buckinghamſhire, was ſold by auction at Mr. Langford's, for the ſum of 4800 l.

The proſecution againſt Mr. Wilkes for the original publication of the North Briton, No. 45 (which was to have been tried by a London Jury) is withdrawn; and Mr. George Kearſly, for the original publication of that number, and Mr. John Williams, for the republication of it in two volumes, are to be tried theſe preſent Sittings at Guildhall, before Lord Mansfield and a London Jury.

Lately married, The widow Pugh, of Leather-lane, aged 67, to Mr. Curtis, aged 26; as ſoon as the marriage ceremony was over, the bride preſented her ſpouſe with a Bank bill of 300 l.

They write from Warſaw, of the 30th ult. that the Ruſſian and Poliſh troops, with the generals Poniatowſky and Ronicker, as alſo the Prince Repnin, the Ruſſian Ambaſſador, at their head, who is to have the chief command, are marched from the neighbourhood of that capital to attack the Prince Palatine of Wilna in Lithuania, as alſo to cover Prince Cazartorinſky's eſtate in that Dutchy; and in order to facilitate the ſame, 8000 Ruſſian freſh troops paſſed Minſk the 14th ult. under the command of Prince Dolgorucky, and were arrived at Novogrod.

By a letter from Kingſton in Jamaica we learn, that the Spaniards lately contracted there for the purchaſe of 11,000 Negroes, to be employed in repairing and ſtrengthening the fortifications of the Havannah, which place is intended to be rendered as impregnable as it is in the power of art to make it.

Yeſterday a cauſe came on to be tried, by a ſpecial Jury, at Weſtminſter-hall, before the Right Hon. Lord Chief Juſtice Pratt, wherein the Rev. Mr. Entick was Plaintiff, and Mr. Carrington, and three other Meſſengers, were Defendants, for ſeizing Mr. Entrick's papers, as one of the ſuppoſed authors of certain numbers of the Monitor; when after many learned arguments by the Council on both ſides, which laſted near four hours, a verdict was found for the Plaintiff, in 300 l. damages.

Two Venetian veſſels are arrived at Tunis, one laden with ſhip timber, the other with braſs cannon of different calibres, with different kinds of arms, of which they began to be in want there. The Bey has taken the cargoes of theſe two ſhips on his own account.

July 24. They write from Warſaw, that the Sieur Monette, Envoy from the Court of France to the Republick of Poland, had received orders to return home; but the French Reſident M. Hennin, was not recalled the 2d inſtant.

July 25. Many people are of opinion that the French, from their known policy, would never be induced on any terms to give up their colony of New Orleans, the only poſſeſſion they now have in all North-America, and conſequently all future pretenſions to any part of that continent; neither is it probable that the Spaniards would be troubled with it, having already ſo many flouriſhing provinces to the ſouthward. Some advices, juſt received from France, ſeems to favour this opinion, by mentioning three tranſports which lately ſailed with ſtores and ſettlers from Old France for the Miſſiſippi.

St. James's, July 21. In anſwer to the repreſentations made by his Majeſty's ambaſſador at the court of Madrid, upon the late tranſactions of their governor of Jucatan, and his proceedings towards the Britiſh ſubjects employed in cutting logwood in the bay of Honduras, the Spaniſh miniſtry have replied, That they have not received any advices from that governor relative to this affair; but that it is certain the Catholic king has given poſitive orders to his governor of Jucatan to abide by, and obſerve the XVIIth Article of the laſt treaty of peace, and that he will not approve of the conduct of his ſubjects who act in contravention to it. That it is the intention of his Catholic Majeſty, that no one ſhall impede the Engliſh in their cutting logwood in the ſtipulated places; and he will diſapprove of his governors and miniſters, whenever they act to the contrary, and renew the moſt ſtrict orders to that effect.

London, July 27. Yeſterday the publiſhers of No. 45. of the North Briton in numbers, and in two volumes, were tried before Lord Mansfield, at Guildhall, London; when the Jury brought them in guilty of publiſhing the ſame.

Immediately after this trial came on that Mr. of Kearſly, for originally publiſhing the ſame number of the North-Briton; and he was likewiſe found guilty.

We are informed, that diſcretionary powers are preparing to be diſpatched to our ſeveral governors in the Weſt-Indies and North America, by the next packet, in imitation to thoſe granted to the Dutch, and always inſerted in their commiſſions, by which our admirals and commanders may be enabled to do juſtice to his Majeſty's ſubjects, either by repriſals or other neceſſary acts; which the contingencies of the times may authorize in caſe of any future breach of the peace in that part of the world.

For the better ſecurity of the port of Charles-Town in South-Carolina, an additional fort is going to be erected on the Eaſtern ſide of Sullivan's iſland, facing that on the South ſhore, which is to be flank'd with proper batteries: On the ſame iſland is to be erected a lazaretto, where veſſels may occaſionally perform quarantine.

A few days ago Mr. Harriſon, who ſome time ſince, in company with Mr. Irwin, went to the Weſt-Indies with their different machines, in order to find out the longitude, returned home from Barbados, and by letters from thence, appears to have met with great ſucceſs.

Some letters from Poland ſay, that the Crown Field Marſhal Branicki, was retired into Hungary, and that the troops that were under his command have joined the reſt of the crown forces under the crown general Cartorinſky, by which means it is thought all differences between the different parties in that kingdom will ſoon be compromiſed.

They write from Poland, that it is currently talked of there, that Great Britain, and ſome other proteſtant powers, at the requeſt of the proteſtants in Poland, will uſe their intereſt to get the reſolution of the Poliſh Diet repealed, touching the liberties and religion of thoſe people; it being contrary to the treaty of Oliva, made in the time of Guſtavus Adolphus.

A letter from Holland mentions, that a great number of Poliſh families, moſtly tradeſmen and handicrafts, have thoughts of tranſporting themſelves, in the nature of Palatines, to the new Britiſh ſettlements in America. They are ſaid to be ſpirited on by ſome perſons of note in that kingdom, who intend to withdraw themſelves from the impending troubles, to where their perſons and religion may be out of danger.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint-----Steward, Eſq; Deputy Commiſſary of the muſters of his Majeſty's forces in North-America.

By all the intelligence received at Paris from Martinico, it appears that they are putting that iſland in the beſt poſture of defence, eſpecially Fort Royal, the fortifications of which they are repairing and augmenting.

Among other weapons uſed with good ſucceſs in the preſent Indian war, none have been found to have a better effect than the uſe of ſmall hand-grenadoes to intimidate the ſavages; a few of theſe, thrown in dextrouſly, create a moſt horrible confuſion among them; for which reaſon, we hear, large quantities are now preparing to be ſhipped among the other military ſtores for North-America.

It is reported that all the Engliſh forts and caſtles in the Weſt-Indies, which amount to upwards of 300 in number, both in the Leward and Windward Iſlands, are to be thoroughly repaired, the old ordnance ſent home, and to be remounted by new from England.

Some letters from Ratiſbon of the 12th inſtant ſay, it is currently talked of there, that a treaty of alliance was on the carpet, and on the point of being concluded, between the Courts of Vienna and Verſailles, on the ſame footing as that between the Empreſs of Ruſſia and the King of Pruſſia.

Some advices from Warſaw mention, that, notwithſtanding the jealouſies and oppoſite views of the many different parties in Poland, ſeveral of the grandees, and even the heads of the parties themſelves, ſeem to concur in their ſentiments of rendering the ſucceſſion to the crown hereditary; and it is the opinion of many, that, notwithſtanding the late treaty between the King of Pruſſia and the Empreſs Queen, in oppoſition to this ſyſtem, they will find it extremely difficult to fruſtrate an event which ſome other foreign powers alſo ſeem diſpoſed to bring about.

By letters from Germany it appears, that the military executions are ſtill continued in the Duchy of Wurtemberg, from whence we are told, that the Duke has not thought fit to accept the good offices of the Barons de Weidman and Gemmingen, Miniſters from the Emperor, and the King of Great-Britain as Elector of Hanover; having ſent Count de Montmartin incog. on his own behalf, to execute a commiſſion at the Court of Vienna. Amongſt other grievances alledged, it is ſaid, this Prince had impoſed on his ſubjects an extraordinary military tax of 76,666 crowns per month.

By the Halifax Packet, Captain Bolderſon, arrived at New-York, in a ſhort Paſſage, from Falmouth, we have the following Advices, viz.

LONDON, July 28.

ON the 7th inſtant a letter was received at Warſaw from Conſtantinople, dated the 2d of June, ſigned with the Grand Seignior's own hand, addreſſed to the Biſhops, Magnates, Staroſts, &c. of the kingdom of Poland, recommending them, in the ſtrongeſt terms, to union and concord amongſt themſelves; but eſpecially he adviſes them to elect a native of an honourable family, of that country, to be their King; aſſuring the Republic of his friendſhip and aſſiſtance, as long as they endeavoured to merit them. This letter was diſpatched from the Porte by the Ruſſian Reſident.

Letters from Poland mention, that all the Poliſh regiments had left Count Branicki, Caſtellan of Cracow, and that the Saxon regiments of Ulans were marched into Saxony; which obliged him to retire into Hungary with a few friends.

They write from Warſaw, that ſeveral hundred workmen were employed in building a bridge croſs the Viſtula, near that capital, which was carried on with the utmoſt expedition, to be ready againſt the day of election of the King.

Extract of a letter from Paris.

"It is currently reported, that 35,000 men will ſoon form an army of obſervation on the Confines of Poland, under the command of a Marſhal of France."

By the French mail there is advice, that the King of Sardinia ſtrongly oppoſes the ſending French troops to Corſica.

Yeſterday was held a board of Treaſury, on affairs of great importance, which did not break up till late in the evening.

July 31. They write from Warſaw, that the workmen had begun the conſtruction of the Cola, or Electoral Camp, in a large field between Wolau, a ſmall town, and that Metropolis.

They write from Leghorn, that two perſons, ſuppoſed to be deputies from the malecontents of Corſica, paſſed through that city, on the 12th inſtant, with intent, as has been reported, to ſolicit an audience of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, before he leaves Italy. They took the route for Turin, and appeared to be well received by ſeveral Engliſh of diſtinction.

It is ſaid a very ſtrong remonſtrance is now preparing to be laid before the enſuing parliament, againſt the Britiſh colonies of North-America having liberty to export produce to foreign European markets, without touching in England. The petition, we hear, will be ſupported by ſome of the moſt eminent merchants in the kingdom.

It is ſaid the circulation of copper money is going to be encouraged in all the Britiſh ſettlements in America.

Auguſt 2, Some letters by the Flanders mail yeſterday intimate that there is an important negociation on the tapis between the Courts of Vienna and Great-Britain.

Letters from Warſaw of the 15th ult. poſitively aſſert, that Count Poniatowſki's party were ſo well aſſured of the election, that medals were coining in the mint, with the face of the ſaid Count on them, for the coronation.

Great numbers of men are employed in repairing and beautifying the Caſtle of Warſaw, againſt the coronation of the King of Poland.

By private letters from Dantzick, of the 17th ult. we have an account, that Prince Repnin and General Poniatowſki (having received intelligence, on their journey to Lithuania, that Prince Radzivil had been defeated at Slonim, and was retiring towards Volhinia with 5000 Ruſſians at his heels) were returning to Warſaw.

It is now ſaid, the ſeat of government for the new iſlands in the Weſt-Indies, will be held at Port Royal in the Grenades, and not at St. Vincent, as was ſome time ago reported.

When the laſt ſhips left Newfoundland, there were only two ſmall French ſhips of war on the Banks to ſuperintend their fiſhery; two 50 gun ſhips and a frigate having ſome time before ſailed for Martinico, on the remonſtrance of the Engliſh Commodore, that ſo many French ſhips of war occupying theſe ſeas, was contrary to the intent and meaning of the late treaty.

Auguſt 4. Letters from Warſaw, of the 15th ult. adviſe, that not only the Ambaſſador from the Emperor of Germany, and the Reſident from the Court of Verſailles, but alſo the Reſident from that of Madrid, had received orders to withdraw himſelf from that city before the election of a King. The former having received poſitive orders to leave that metropolis in three weeks, his Excellency had given orders to ſell his ſtate coach and furniture, declaring, that his Imperial Majeſty would not in any manner moleſt the Poles in the free election of their King. The Ambaſſador and Reſident of Ruſſia have likewiſe declared to the Chancellor of Lithuania, that they will go from thence before the day of election.

Advices from Poland of the 13th ult. aſſure, that Prince Radzivil has not only publiſhed a ſevere manifeſto againſt the confederacy of the Grand Duchy of Lithuania, and the Ruſſians who ſupport it, but alſo, relying on the convention between the King of Pruſſia and the Houſe of Neuberg, hath wrote to his Pruſſian Majeſty, claiming his Aſſiſtance in the preſent conjuncture. It is ſaid that Prince Radzivil had, at the time of the above date, near 10,000 men under his command.

Among the other regulations now on foot in the Weſt-Indies, a proper arſenal is ordered in each iſland, for the better ſecurity of the military ſtores; the arms to be regularly kept in ſeparate lots, and carefully looked after.

They write from Jamaica, that among other fortifications now carrying on by the Spaniards at the Havannah, all the poſſible avenues to the citadel, and other ſtrong holds, are ſhutting up, by driving huge piles of timber into the ground, ſtrongly ſecured together with iron, and headed with ſharp ſpikes. Theſe piles are deſigned to render the future carriage of heavy artillery from the ſea impracticable; 20,000 trees having been cut down for this purpoſe by the direction of one Manelly, an Iriſh engineer, lately arrived from Spain.

A vaſt number of quarter-guineas are now ſending abroad to the American ſettlements, which, it is thought, will occaſion a farther coinage of theſe pieces, ſo neceſſary for change.

Auguſt 7. They adviſe from Vienna, of the 14th ult. that the Marquis Paulmy d'Argenſon, late Ambaſſador from France to the Republick of Poland, was arrived there, and had ſeveral conferences with the Empreſs Queen and her Miniſtry, relative to the election of a King of Poland; and it was aſſerted, that the Courts of Vienna and Verſailles will jointly engage in ſome undertaking reſpecting that election before it takes place.

Letters from Warſaw adviſe, that the Pruſſian Ambaſſador gave, on the 15th paſt, a very grand entertainment to the Czartorinſki family and their friends; when his Excellency acquainted them, that the Prince Radzivil, Palatine of Wilna, had ſent the Staroſt of Ziolow to Berlin to crave aſſiſtance of his Pruſſian Majeſty, which had been entirely rejected and refuſed by that Monarch, nor was the ſaid Nobleman admitted to an audience of the ſaid Prince, but obliged to return as he went.

Letters from Poland adviſe, that Count Branicki, Staroſt of Haliez (a near relation of the Grand General of the Crown, of the ſame name) with the forces under his command, was arrived at Tomaſow in Little Poland, there to wait for farther orders.

Yeſterday the under Sheriff of Middleſex made proclamation at the great door of St. Margaret's Church, Weſtminſter, for John Wilkes, Eſq; late of the ſame pariſh, to appear on the ſixth day of November next, before the King himſelf at Weſtminſter.

The laſt advices from Hamburgh confirm the report, that both Sweden and Denmark are deeply engaged in the affairs of Poland, which appears in nothing more than that both theſe powers are conſiderably augmenting their marine, which cannot with any propriety be now ſaid to be fitting out againſt the ſtates of Barbary, a league having lately been concluded with thoſe infidels which renders a ſtep of that nature unneceſſary.

Auguſt 9. The King of Pruſſia, inſtead of granting an audience to the Sieur Pac, Staroſt of Ziolow, who came to Berlin to crave aſſiſtance in behalf of Prince Radzivil, ordered him to be told, that he would do well to return and report to Prince Radzivil, that his Majeſty adviſed him to lay down his arms, to return to his duty, and to unite with the States which compoſed the Dyet of Convocation. The King of Pruſſia himſelf has wrote a letter to Prince Radzivil, to the ſame purpoſe.

They write from Lithuania, that the Ruſſians had taken Olyka, a caſtle belonging to Prince Radzivil, and had made 300 men, whom they found in it, priſoners of war.

There is now a report, that ſeveral Lieutenants will ſoon be ſent out to command cruizing cutters on the Spaniſh Main, to act in like manner as thoſe ſome time ago appointed on the North American ſtations.

The following is an exact copy of the proclamation made at the great door of St. Margaret's church, Weſtminſter, on Sunday laſt, by the Under-Sheriff of Middleſex:

"John Wilkes, late of the pariſh of St. Margaret, within the liberty of Weſtminſter, in the county of Middleſex, Eſq; appear before the Lord the King at Weſtminſter, on Tueſday, next after the morrow of All Souls, to ſatisfy the Lord the King for your redemption, on account of certain treſpaſſes, contempts, and miſdemeanors, whereof you are impeached, and thereupon, by a certain Jury of the County, taken between the King and you the ſaid John Wilkes, you are convicted."

Auguſt 11. They write from Warſaw, that Prince Radzivil, finding himſelf puſhed by the Ruſſian and Poliſh troops, and deſpairing of any ſuccours from foreign powers, is retiring towards Choczim.

We hear that the ſubject of epiſcopacy is at preſent under conſideration for the continent of America, and that one Arch and 12 Suffragan Biſhops will be ſpeedily appointed for the religious government of that country.

A letter from Warſaw mentions, that Count Poniatowſki has lately received ſome very valuable preſents from the Empreſs of Ruſſia; among which are divers ornaments and regalia, only fit to be worn by a Sovereign Prince.

The ſettlement of St. John's iſland, which for ſome time paſt, ſeemed to have been dropt, we are now informed, is again under conſideration, but on a plan much more conſtitutional, than by military tenures.

Upon an average, it has been computed that 50,000 dollars a month have been imported from North-America only, not to mention the Britiſh iſlands, ſince the peace; one million of which have been ſent out of the kingdom by a certain Company, never to return.

Several thouſand bayonets are ordered to be ſhipt among the next military ſtores for North-America.

Deal, Auguſt. 8. Came down yeſterday, and ſailed with all the outward-bound, the Carolina, Friend, for Philadelphia; and Hope, Jacobſon, for New-York.

NEW-YORK, October 1.

Extract of a Letter from England, dated July 17, 1764.

"----There have been ſeveral Things before our Houſe of Commons, very pernicious to America; ſome have been dropt, ſome purſued, and ſome depending. The Report of your Gaiety and Luxury has reached your Mother Country; and they infer from thence your Opulency, which is further confirmed by the extravagant Expences of your Youth ſent here for Education, and therefore you are well able to bear Part of the Expences your Defence has coſt the Nation; and can you blame them for ſuch a Concluſion? Is it not natural to infer it from the Premiſes?"

Extract of a Letter from Philadelphia.

"Letters from Fort Pitt, of the 16th of September, bring Advice, That an Expreſs that ſet out from Fort Pitt, with Diſpatches to Sanduſky, in Anſwer to Letters ſent with Advice of the late Negociation at Preſque-iſle, was diſcovered about 45 Miles from thence to have been murdered by the Indians, and his Head ſtuck upon a Pole in the Middle of the Road: It is ſuppoſed that a Man who accompanied him is carried off by the Indians. From hence it is very apparent, that the Deſign of theſe Villains has been to over-reach and impoſe upon us in the late Negociation, by gaining Time to diſpoſe of their Wives and Children out of our Reach, ſhould they be attacked, and endeavouring to make it ſo late in the Seaſon, that no offenſive Operations can be carried on againſt them."

Captain Shaw arrived here laſt Sunday from Santa Croix, in 20 Days. The 17th of September, in Lat. 32, 22, Long. 72, 40, he ſpoke with the Ship Pennſylvania Packet, Capt. Aul, from the Bay of Honduras for Hamburgh, all well on board, and 29 Days out.

Saturday Night laſt, the Elizabeth, Capt. Keating, arrived here from Briſtol; which Place ſhe left the 10th of Auguſt, but brings no late News: By him we have Advice of the Arrival at Briſtol of the Prince George, Capt. Hawthorn, of this Port, in 28 Days. The 28th of Auguſt Capt. Keating ſpoke with a Brig from London, bound for Halifax, that had Recruits on board for the 40th Regiment.

PHILADELPHIA, October 4.

HAVING heard that ſome Perſons, on ſeeing a Paper that came out Yeſterday in my Name, have ſuppoſed the Printer therein mentioned acted too buſily, in giving me Intelligence of the Piece Mr. Galloway carried to him, in order to be publiſhed in his News-Paper; I think myſelf obliged, in Juſtice to the Printer, to declare, That having been informed by ſeveral Perſons, without receiving the leaſt Intelligence from the Printer, that Mr. Galloway intended to publiſh ſomething againſt me in the next Paper, I went to the Printer Yeſterday was a Week, and, telling him what I had heard, deſired that, if there was any Truth in the Report, he would be ſo juſt and impartial, as to print nothing that might affect my Reputation, without allowing me to ſee and anſwer it in the ſame News-Paper.

He ſaid, that no ſuch Writing was ſent to him.---I called upon him again next Morning, and made the ſame Requeſt; but nothing was then come to his Hands.---I told him, that if he was deſired to conceal the Paper from me, when ſent, it could be with no other Intention than to injure me, by taking an unfair Advantage of me; and I entreated him to act in ſuch a Manner on this Occaſion, as he would wiſh me to do, was I the Printer, and he the Perſon attacked.

The Paper was ſoon after carried to him.---He deſired to know whether it might be ſhewn to me.---To this Mr. Galloway would not conſent;---and the Printer then acted as he thought right.

Thomas Leſter, born in England, about 40 years of age, of a freſh complexion, about 5 feet 6 inches high, ſays he always followed the ſea, has on a ſhort brown jacket, coarſe trowſers, white yarn ſtockings, old hat, and half worn ſhoes, and ſays he came laſt from Jamaica. Patrick Troy, born in Ireland, about 16 years old, of a ruddy complexion, has a defect in his right eye; ſays he came in with Captain Miller laſt fall, from Derry, and that one William Marbuckle has his indentures; has on an old light coloured coarſe jacket, old tow trowſers, old homeſpun ſhirt, no ſhoes nor ſtockings, and ſpeaks ſomewhat fooliſh. Their maſters, if any they have, are deſired to come in 30 days from the date hereof, and take them away, otherwiſe they will be ſold out for their charges, by
JACOB GRAYBILL, Goaler. 8

Juſt publiſhed, and to be ſold by ANDREW STEWART, at the Bible-in Heart, in Second-ſtreet, between Market and Cheſtnut-ſtreet, Philadelphia,

THE UNIVERSAL AMERICAN ALMANACK for the year 1765, better adapted to the provinces of Pennſylvania, Maryland, Virginia, the Carolinas, the Jerſies, New-York, Connecticut, &c. than any almanack ever publiſhed heretofore. It contains the motions of the ſun and moon, the places and aſpects of the planets, the riſing and ſetting of the ſun, and the riſing, ſetting and ſouthing of the moon, the lunations, conjunctions, eclipſes, judgment of the weather, riſing and ſetting of the planets, length of days, fairs, time of holding courts in Pennſylvania, New-Jerſey, New-York, Connecticut, Maryland and Virginia, tables of roads northeaſtward from Philadelphia 597 miles, and ſouthweſtward from ditto 767 miles.---There is alſo added (from the late ingenious Mr. Scull's map) the following roads, viz. from Philadelphia Court-houſe to Pittſburgh,---from ditto to Reading,---from Reading to Harris's-ferry,--from Reading to Eaſton,--from Reading to Lancaſter,--from Philadelphia to Bethlehem.---And the diſtance of places from the mouth of the river St. Laurence as far up the river Miſſiſippi as Pittſburgh, in all 1215 miles.---The compleat market book, being a table ſhewing the price of meal from one pound to a hundred weight.---Tables of intereſt at 6 and 7 per cent.---A table of expences, income, or wages, from one penny to ten pounds per day.---A table of the value and weight of gold and ſilver coins, as they now paſs in England, Philadelphia, New-York, &c.---Rates and hires of ſtage waggons and ſtage boats, with their time of ſetting off from Philadelphia, together with a great variety of entertaining pieces, amongſt which are, the grape and tobacco plant, a fable, extracts from a new work entituled The Rule of Life.---A Jewiſh tradition concerning Moſes.---The hiſtory of Santon Barſiſa.---Jeſus the Saviour, a poem.---A dialogue between an old droiling gentleman and his merry tallow faced lady.---Two excellent letters from Cicero to his ſon Marcus, in order to reclaim him from his looſe courſe of life.---A cure for the bite of a viper, for the headach, the ague and toothach, with many other wiſe ſayings, witty turns, ſound maxims, &c. &c. &c.

MARTIN CHRISTY.

Tenth month 1, 1764.

RUN away laſt night from the ſubſcriber, living in Eaſt Nottingham, Cheſter county, an Iriſh ſervant lad, named Thomas Keigan, about 17 years of age, low ſtature, ſtoops in his walk; had on an old felt hat, broke in the crown, old light coloured cloth coat, with braſs buttons, turn up the back, and mended again, but perceivable, ſtriped linen jacket, coarſe ſhirt, and tow trowſers, with a patch of new linen on one thigh, and good ſhoes. Whoever takes up ſaid ſervant, and ſecures him, ſo as his maſter may him again, ſhall have Forty Shillings reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by SAMUEL ENGLAND. ⊕

TO be ſold at public vendue, on Saturday, the 3d of November, on the premiſes, one moiety or half part of a certain tract of land and premiſes, ſituate, lying and being near Spotſwood, on each ſide Manalapan river, containing by eſtimation 2000 acres, together with a griſt-mill, ſaw-mill and forge, and appurtenances thereunto belonging; alſo ſeveral meſſuages and dwelling-houſes thereon built; taken in execution at the ſuit of Philip Kearney, John Lefferts, Benjamin Watkins, and John Watſon, and belonging to Peter Ten Eik; alſo divers goods and chattels of and belonging to the ſaid Peter Ten Eik, likewiſe taken by virtue of the execution aforeſaid. The terms of ſale, and circumſtances of the land and premiſes, will be made known at the day and place of ſale aforeſaid, by JAMES BROOKS, Sheriff.

TO BE SOLD,

A Plantation, containing 208 Acres of well timbered land, conſiſting chiefly of poplar, black walnut, and aſh, with two orchards, houſe, kitchen and barn, about 50 or 60 acres of clear land, the whole under good fence, ſituate within a mile of Fullon's, and five miles of Peach-bottom ferry, on Saſquehannah river, in the upper end of Cecil county, Maryland, bounded on Cannowingo creek, where the purchaſer may build a mill of any kind. The uncleared land is allowed to be excellent for hemp, barley, corn or tobacco, and the old for wheat. Any perſon inclining to purchaſe ſaid land, may hear of the terms, by applying to John M'Cay, or James Arbuckle, within three miles of ſaid land, or to George Correy, Eſq; in New-London, or to the ſubſcriber, at John Correy's, in Philadelphia. ROBERT GRAHAM. ⊖

N. B. The title is indiſputable.

Juſt imported in the laſt veſſels from London and Briſtol, and to be ſold on very reaſonable terms, by

At their ſtore in Walnut-ſtreet,

A Large and neat aſſortment of European and Eaſt-India goods, ſuitable for the ſeaſon, amongſt which are a great quantity of Iriſh linens, brown hollands, dowlas and ſheetings, Scots and German ozenbrigs, 7-8ths, yd. wd. and yd. and 3 8ths cotton and linen checks, ſtriped cotton hollands, Ruſſia drab, 6 qr. huckaback, clouting diaper, 8-qr. diaper and damaſk tablecloths, figured demity, white and dyed India jeans, cambricks and lawns, calicoes, cottons and chintzes, an aſſortment of coloured and Scots thread, ſewing ſilk, ſtriped flannels, a variety of men and womens thread, cotton and worſted hoſe, ſhaloons, rattinets, calimancoes, camblets, Norwich crapes, florettas, felt hats, playing cards, &c. &c. &c.

N. B. They have alſo for ſale a few hogſheads of old Barbados ſpirit, muſcovado ſugar in barrels, caſtile ſoap, and choice Waterford pork by the barrel; likewiſe a few likely young new Negroes, at Roberts's ferry, oppoſite this city, in the Jerſeys, which they will alſo diſpoſe of on very reaſonable terms. 4 W.

CAME to the plantation of John Jack, of Weſt Nantmell townſhip, Cheſter county, about the end of June laſt, a black horſe, about 11 or 12 years old, paces and handgallops, has no mark. He had on when he came, a bell and a yoke. The owner is deſired to come and prove his property, pay charges, and take him away. JOHN JACK. ⊖

PADUA, July 3.

THE treaty between our Republic and the Regency of Tripoli is concluded; and the Tripoline Ambaſſador is preparing to depart.

The Duke of York is ſtill here, and expreſſes great ſatisfaction. His departure is not yet fixed. He went laſt Saturday incog. to Venice, and viewed the arſenal during ſeveral hours with great attention.

Warſaw, July 2. We flatter ourſelves that the troubles of this kingdom will be at an end by the day of election; and that the Dietines of Relation will be held peaceably.

The order given to the Ruſſian General Chomouto to return to Peterſburgh, cauſes ſome ſpeculation. Some think he will not be continued in his command, and others that the Empreſs is willing to have a detail of the affairs of Poland from his own mouth.

Stockholm, July 6. The Court has declared, that as this Crown hath engaged to maintain the Proteſtant Cauſe at all times, and in all places, it cannot behold the oppreſſion of the Proteſtants in Poland with an indifferent eye. This declaration, joined to the arrangemens making in the fleet and army, has cauſed ſome reflection on the conſequences that may reſult from it.

Genoa, June 30. Though we talk much of the approaching arrival of a large body of French troops in Corſica, to enable General Matra to reduce the rebels, yet it does not appear that our uneaſineſs about that iſland is abated. Paoli, Chief of the Corſicans, has convoked a general aſſembly, not, as ſome have ſaid, to get himſelf created Doge, and form a Council of Regency on the ſame footing as in this Republic, but to concert meaſures for making head againſt the foreign forces that may be ſent into Corſica. It is ſaid, that it was reſolved in that aſſembly to apply for ſuccours to another foreign power, who has already ſupplied them, and daily does ſupply them, not with troops, but with money, proviſions, and warlike ſtores; and we believe this to be true, otherwiſe Paoli could not have diſtreſſed us ſo much as he has done. He is actually battering fort St. Florent with heavy artillery; and if he takes it, we ſhall have but very little footing left in that iſland. We indeed ſuſpect that ſome rich merchants furniſh him with arms and ammunition; but who enables him to pay for them? Merchants do nothing without proper returns.

Warſaw, July 4. We received the news yeſterday of a ſmart action in Lithuania, near the little town of Slonim, between Prince Radzivil and the Ruſſians. It laſted 5 hours; when the Ruſſians being joined by a reinforcement from Prince Dolgorucki, the Polanders were obliged to retire, which they did in good order, and without being followed. The letters vary in relation to the number ſlain; but a remarkable anecdote is related. The Princeſs Radzivil, who is newly married, and a ſiſter of the Prince, both of whom are poſſeſſed of youth and beauty, fought on horſeback in this action with ſabres, and encouraged the ſoldiery both by example and by words.

Genoa, July 7. On the 5th an armed Pink arrived here from San Fiorenzo, whither ſhe had carried ammunition. The Captain ſays, that the rebels did not continue the ſiege with the ſame vigour they did, and that the greater part had retired to get in the harveſt. The Commandant of the place keeps up a great fire with the artillery, to keep the aſſailants at a diſtance; and in a ſally made by the Genoeſe, they deſtroyed a battery, killed about 10 men, and made ſeveral priſoners.

Genoa, July 9. The report that a body of French troops were to be ſent to Corſica to reduce that iſland, under the dominion of the Republic, ſtill ſubſiſts; but as it has been current a month, without any appearance of preparation for ſuch an expedition, it is thought to be ill-founded.

Conſtantinople, June 16. The Porte continues to ſend ammunition and troops towards the frontiers on the ſide of Poland and Ruſſia; and Col. Stankiewitz, Reſident here from Count Branicki, Great General of Poland, ceaſes not to implore ſuccours of his Highneſs againſt the Czartorinſki party. It is believed, however, that the Divan is reſolved not to meddle in the affairs of Poland.

Warſaw, July 8. The Ruſſian and Pruſſian Ambaſſadors continue to have frequent conferences with the Prince Primate, and alſo with the Houſes of Czartorinſki and Poniatowſki. On the other hand, the Auſtian Ambaſſador, and the Reſident of the ſame Court, are preparing to depart, their recal being grounded on the ſame motive as that of the French Ambaſſador. We foreſee that the French and Spaniſh Reſident will receive orders to do the ſame. The departure of theſe Miniſters will be a means of weakening ſtill more the party in oppoſition to the Dyet.

Hamburgh, July 15. It is pretended, that ſince the retreat of Count Branicki to the confines of the Republick, that nobleman finding that it was in vain for him to flatter himſelf with receiving from foreign Courts ſuch aſſiſtance as, joined to his own troops, might enable him to make head againſt thoſe of the Dyet and Ruſſia, had himſelf conſented to the diſſolution of the body of troops under his command, and that his troops ſo diſbanded, had joined thoſe of the Grand Regimentary.

Advices from good hands at Peterſburgh intimate, that the Empreſs has given orders for forming two armies, one near Revel, and the other near Riga. Theſe advices add, that that Princeſs has reſolved to keep on foot 80,000 men, which are to be diſperſed in different parts of Poland, with a deſign effectually to ſupport the general confederacy, and prevent the unhappy conſequences of an inteſtine war, which would cauſe a total deſtruction of that kingdom.

Liſbon, June 19. The ſhips of war on our ſtocks will ſoon be launched; they are intended to cruize on the Sallee rovers, under the command of Don Jean de Bempoſta, Admiral of Portugal, who ſolicited the appointment. He will go incognito, under the name of the Count d'Eſtremos.

Leghorn, July 2. It remains a doubt as yet, whether the ſuccours which the French have been ſaid to intend ſending to the Genoeſe for the reduction of Corſica are ſent or no. It is imagined they may be impeded by the repreſentations of the Court of London, who would willingly have that people become a free republic.

Turin, July 11. His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York arrived here this morning, and was met at ſome diſtance from this place by the Maſter of the Ceremonies, and his Deputy, in two of his Sardinian Majeſty's coaches, and conducted to the palace prepared for his reception; and ſoon after received the compliments upon his ſafe arrival, on the part of the King, the Duke of Savoy, and the reſt of the Royal Family; to all of whom his Royal Highneſs a few hours after paid his viſit, which was received with all the marks of friendſhip and cordiality.

Berlin, July 21. M. Badouin, the Pruſſian Secretary of Legation, ſet out from hence yeſterday for England. The King and Prince Royal of Pruſſia, accompanied by the Duke and Ducheſs of Brunſwick, the Hereditary Prince, and Princeſſes Elizabeth and Auguſta of Brunſwick, came from Potzdam to Charlottenbourg, on the 16th inſt. The ſame day Count Finckenſtein acquainted the foreign Miniſters reſiding at this court, with the intended Marriage of the Prince Royal of Pruſſia with the Princeſs Elizabeth of Brunſwick, adding, that his Pruſſian Majeſty would be pleaſed to ſee the Miniſters at Charlottenbourg, to ſhare in the diverſions that were to be given on this occaſion. On the 18th inſt. the ceremony of Betrothing was performed; and in the evening there was an aſſembly, the garden being illuminated; and after ſupper there was a ball which laſted till Morning.

Dantzick, July 12. Count Branicki has actually no army, nor has he any aſſiſtance to expect from the Turks and Tartars.

Vienna, July 14. The affair of the Dutchy of Wertemberg becomes very ſerious; inſomuch that we are under apprehenſions of ſomething of a like nature to what happened heretofore in Mecklenbourg. The military execution is not yet taken off at Tubingen.

Ratiſbon, July 16. The differences between the Duke of Wertemberg and the ſtates of his country ſtill ſubſiſt; he has rejected the propoſals made to him by the Imperial and Hanoverian Miniſters.

Lubec, July 18. Recruits are raiſing here, as well as at Hamburgh and Bremen, for the troops of three powers.

Genoa, July 9. Certain advice has been received here, that three unknown veſſels lately caſt anchor in the Streights of St. Bonifacia; from which were landed for the relief of the malecontents, 6000 firelocks, a large quantity of artillery, and a round ſome of money. They refuſed to ſhew any colours, and appeared ſhips of force; from all which it is conjectured, that the iſland of Corſica will ſoon be in a ſtate of independency.

Liſbon, July 10. Since the expulſion of the Jeſuits, this kingdom continues to copy Great Britain in her clemency to malefactors; for which reaſon, the uſe of the torture is going entirely to be laid aſide in Portugal, except in caſes of high treaſon.

Warſaw, July 16. The detachment of 3000 men, which was ſent into Pruſſia, by orders from Count Branicki, to guard the Ruſſian magazines there, is returned hither. Prince Czartorinſki, Grand Regimentary, who gave orders for their return, has alſo cauſed the artillery of the Crown to be brought back.

It is not properly Hungary that Count Branicki hath retired into, but into Zipſerland. This diſtrict contains thirteen towns, which formerly belonged to the kingdom of Hungary, but are now mortgaged to the Houſe of Lubomerſki. Several Poliſh Commanders, who followed him, have ſeparated with their troops into different parts, and the Count himſelf is at Lublow.

Since the affair of Slonim, we have heard nothing of Prince Radzivil, Palatine of Wilna; but it is thought that amicable means are uſing to bring him over. It is, however, certain, that Lieut. Gen. Stoffel, with 10,000 Ruſſians, is entered into Poland by the Palatinate of Kiovia.

Warſaw, July 18. Count Mercy d'Argenteau, Ambaſſador from the Court of Vienna, with his Reſident, and the Reſident of Spain, left this city yeſterday, after having taken leave of the Primate the day before.

Hamburgh, July 24. The laſt letters from Warſaw adviſe, that there is no doubt of the Dyet of Convocation carrying their point, that is, that the election of a King will be in favour of a Prince on whom they have fixed their eye, and whoſe intereſt is ſupported privately by the Courts of Peterſbourg and Berlin; but with regard to the regulations intended to be made by the ſaid Aſſembly, it is foreſeen that great alterations will be made in them. Among them there is probably one which will adjudge the poſſeſſion of the Dutchy of Courland in favour of Duke Erneſt John.

Thorn, July 20. We are juſt now informed, that a freſh corps of 18,000 Ruſſian troops, under the command of Lieut. Gen. de Stoffel, have entered the kingdom.

Aleppo, May 23. We have received the following intelligence by letters from Bagdad. The principal men of that city, the Janiſſaries, and the people, exaſperated by the cruelties and vexations of Ali Baſhaw, their Governor, gathered in a body about the end of laſt month, and attacked him in his ſeraglio. He made a vigorous defence during four hours; but not being able to withſtand their number, he diſguiſed himſelf in women's cloaths, made his eſcape through the croud, and took ſhelter in a fiſherman's houſe; but the Janiſſaries getting notice of it, took him from thence, and carried him to the fortreſs, where he was immediately ſtrangled.

Genoa, July 16. According to the laſt letters from Corſica, the Tower of the Iſle of Ciraglia, ſituated at the point of Cape Corſica, has been given up to the rebels by treachery. As that Tower was a ſhelter to our veſſels, eſpecially in the paſſage from from Baſtia to St. Florent, its loſs is a great prejudice to the Republick.

Warſaw, July 24. According to advices juſt received from Lithuania, Prince Radzivil, Waywode de Wilna, with his troops, is ſo ſurrounded in the Moraſs of Pinſk, that there is but a very narrow paſſage left for him to eſcape into the dominions of Turkey.

Turin, July 20. The King of Sardinia has given orders that the number of his Majeſty's cruizing ſhips in the Mediterranean may be augmented, with a view, as it is reported, to prevent the intended landing of any foreign troops on the Iſland of Corſica.

LONDON.

July 17. The Dyet of Warſaw have ordered the Crown and Scepter, and all the Regalia, which are kept at Cracow, to be removed to Warſaw on the 1ſt of Auguſt. The Dyet for electing a King, which was fixed for the 20th of Auguſt, is deferred for a week. The reaſon of the Dyet's reſolving that the new King ſhall be crowned at Warſaw, is, that the Caſtle of Cracow is in ſuch a ruinous condition that the ſolemnity cannot be performed there with ſafety; but to make the citizens of Cracow ſome amends for what they may loſe thereby, the new King is to be prayed to convene at Cracow the firſt Dyet after his coronation.

July 24. The Empreſs Queen has ſent a large ſum of money to Genoa, to pay off part of the loan with which ſhe was ſupplied by ſeveral people of that city during the late war.

It is ſaid the military eſtabliſhment of the Eaſt-India Company's forces is to be augmented with two regiments of light horſemen, to embark in the next ſhips; for the raiſing of whom, eſpecially ſuch as have been already in ſervice, and diſcharged ſince the peace, beating orders are now making out.

Prince Charles of Saxony's Reſident at Warſaw, the Sieur de Alor, has been obliged to retire from that metropolis, by expreſs orders of the Primate.

A private letter from Holland mentions, that ſome hundred pieces of large ordnance are now ſhipping for the Dutch ſettlements in the Eaſt-Indies, with a view to fortify two of their moſt valuable oriental Spice-Iſlands, which it is ſuſpected ſome of their neighbours in thoſe parts have long beheld with a jealous eye.

July 26. A large quantity of military ſtores are now getting ready to be ſhipped for Senegal, in conſequence of the late act of parliament, which veſts that place and its dependencies in the African Company.

July 28. It is ſaid a large ſum of money in gold and ſilver, is ordered to be ſhipt for Auguſtine, for the better promoting trade in the two Floridas, where the credit of theſe provinces is as yet too weak to carry on buſineſs on the ſtrength of a paper currency.

This week three men in the rope-making buſineſs were engaged for Georgia; where, we are informed, that branch of manufacture is going to be carried on in a very extenſive manner.

Auguſt 4. They write from Paris, of the 22d paſt, that the troops deſtined for the aſſiſtance of the Genoeſe againſt the Malecontents, were on their march for Antibes, there to embark for Corſica.

They write from Warſaw, that Count de Keiſerling, and Prince Repnin, Ambaſſadors from Ruſſia, had lately a publick audience of the Primate, in the preſence of ſeveral of the Magnates; when an inſtrument wrote on parchment, in the Latin and Ruſſian languages, was produced, with the ſeal of the Republick affixed thereto, giving the Empreſs of Ruſſia, and her ſucceſſors, the title of Emperor or Empreſs of all the Ruſſias: In conſideration of which, the Czarinia is to give in writing under her own hand, that neither ſhe, nor any of her ſucceſſors, ever ſhall lay claim to any part of the provinces belonging to Poland, which may be included, comprehended, or contained under the ſaid title; but that they reciprocally ſhall keep poſſeſſion of all the provinces as ſtipulated in the treaty of peace concluded between the Ruſſians and Poles in the year 1683. Theſe inſtruments are to be interchanged when the Empreſs arrives at Mittau.

An inſtrument of the ſame ſort has been drawn up, giving the title of King of Pruſſia to that Prince, he having given a writing, that neither he or any of his ſucceſſors do now, or ſhall ever hereafter, lay claim to any part of Poliſh Pruſſia; which writing has been delivered to the Diet by the Pruſſian Ambaſſador, the Prince de Carolath.

The Prince Primate, in the name of the Senate, and Prince Cartorinſki, Marſhal of the Dyet of Poland, have ſent congratulatory letters to the Duke Erneſt John de Biron, of Courland, acquainting him, that the Republick had acknowledged his right to the Dutchies of Courland and Semigallia.

It is poſitively ſaid, that the Auſtrians and French have jointly intereſted themſelves againſt Pruſſia and Ruſſia, in the election of a King of Poland; and that an army will ſoon march from Hungary to Poland, which will now probably be made the ſeat of a new war.

We hear her Majeſty is preparing a grand complimentary preſent to the Princeſs Elizabeth-Chriſtina-Ulrigua, of Brunſwick-Wolfenbuttle, on her marriage with Prince Frederic William, preſumptive heir to the throne of Pruſſia.

We are informed a bill is preparing to be laid before the enſuing parliament to prevent foreigners in the Weſt-Indies from being ſupplied with negroes from any of the Britiſh ſettlements on the coaſts of Africa: A ſtep the more neceſſary, as the demand for ſlaves ſtill continues very high in our own new colonies.

Auguſt 7. Letters from Berlin are full of commendations of the Princeſs of Brunſwick bethrothed to the Prince Royal of Pruſſia; of whom it is ſaid, that ſhe is no leſs worthy by the qualities of her heart, than by her perſonal charms, and by the numerous graces which accompany all her actions.

Extract of a letter from Conſtantinople, dated June 20.

"The Mufti's influence ſeems hitherto to prevail here with reſpect to the affairs of Poland, yet we are ſtill ſending off proviſions and military ſtores towards the frontiers. From hence ſome infer, that the Porte is ſtill determined to have a ſhare in the election of a King for that Republick, and that whatever appearances it may now wear, we ſhall ſoon ſee it rouſe itſelf into a ſtate of greater activity. They obſerve further, that even in the declaration lately publiſhed, the Porte only expreſſes its deſire of leaving the Republick to a free election. This cannot be done while Ruſſia is ſuffered to overwhelm them with her troops. Therefore if the Porte has really a deſire of maintaining the Republick in her conſtitution and laws, ſhe will not ſuffer them to be infringed by foreigners. According to theſe, therefore, the only conſtruction to be put upon the late declaration of the Porte is, that if others obſerve a neutrality, ſhe is willing to maintain the like on her part. But if the Ruſſians perſevere in exerting an influence, which ſhe has no title to, over her neighbours, the Porte cannot obſerve, without a jealous eye, ſuch ſtrides towards univerſal dominion, and of courſe cannot, without neglecting her own intereſts, refuſe to lend a hand to oppoſe them."

A private letter from Holland mentions, that the recruiting officers of two different powers have been refuſed the liberty of beating up for men in any of the provinces under the juriſdiction of the States, while thoſe of a third are indulged with the liberty of this privilege without controul, which affords matter of much ſpeculation.

Aug. 9. A perſon of great conſequence was this week heard to declare, that the many late reports circulated both at home and abroad, of Great-Britain's having any deſigns on the iſland of Corſica, any otherwiſe than as a well-wiſher to its natural independency, were without the leaſt foundation.

Several letters which arrived yeſterday by the Dutch mail, from different parts of Poland, all agree that Count Poniatowſki will certainly be choſen King.

Aug. 11. The French Ambaſſador declared, before his departure from Dantzick, that however his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty might reſent the uſage he had met with from the Primate, the ſupport of the Poliſh Lords, who had retired towards Hungary, could not, in the preſent circumſtances of things, be undertaken by the Court of Verſailles. This declaration has removed the apprehenſions the inhabitants of Dantzick were under, of a civil war breaking out in Poland.

The laſt letters from Sileſia adviſe, that the Princeſs de Radzivil, who appeared on horſeback, and encouraged the troops of the Prince her Huſband in the late action between the Ruſſians and Poles, at Slonim in Lithuania, is arrived at Breſlau, where ſhe is much reſpected on account of her bravery.

The following Intelligence we ſhall give our Readers in the Manner we received it.

To Richard Williams, at Peterſon's Fort.

September 15, 1764.

"This is to certify, that Captain Thomas Rutherford came down the Branch laſt Night, and gave an Account of People being killed and taken on the South Fork. Henry Miares's Son is taken, and Jacob Brinks and his Family are killed. There are likewiſe a great Number of Tracks of Indians ſeen. WILLIAM DOBSON.

BOSTON, October 1.

On Monday laſt in the Afternoon, a very ſorrowful Accident happened in Croſs-ſtreet, at the North Part of the Town: Two Lads playing in a Chamber with a Gun, not knowing it to be loaded, preſented it out of the Window, to ſnap it; the Gun went off, and the Shot entered into a neighbouring Window, near which ſeveral Women were ſitting at a Tea-table; one of them, Mrs. Wheaton, a Widow, was ſhot in the Head in ſuch a Manner, that ſhe expired in three Hours after; another was conſiderably wounded in the back Part of her Head, but not mortally; a Third was ſlightly touched on each Side of her Head by ſome of the Shot which ſcattered. It is ſaid this Gun had been loaded with Duck-ſhot about 5 Months; the Perſon who uſed it laſt, returned from Fowling with it loaded, emptied the Pan of the Priming, and then laid it by, and never was meddled with until this ſhocking Occurrence happened.

It is not improper to caution People, who are fond of Gunning, to be more careful than they generally are; it being a Practice for many to keep their Guns loaded, if they have not had an Opportunity of firing at Game, imagining that no Perſon will ever meddle therewith, until they have Occaſion to uſe it themſelves; by which Means we have ſo many unhappy Accidents.

PHILADELPHIA, October 11.

On Monday next the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province meets here.

Carliſle, October 3, 1764.

Meſſieurs Franklin and Hall,

Yeſterday a Number of the principal Inhabitants of Cumberland County waited on their worthy Repreſentative, JOHN MONTGOMERY, Eſq; with the following Addreſs; and by giving it, with the Anſwer, a Place in your Paper, you will oblige many of your Friends.

To JOHN MONTGOMERY, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Aſſembly for the County of Cumberland.

WHILE the Freemen of this County have, by their unanimous Vote, in continuing you their Repreſentative, expreſſed their Approbation of your Conduct in the late Aſſembly; permit us, Sir, in their Name and our own, to offer you our grateful Acknowledgments; Acknowledgments ever due to a Conduct which makes the Public Good its Object, and reflects Honour on the County.

The brave Stand which you, Sir, with the Few who joined you, againſt Meaſures lately taken for a Change in our Conſtitution (we are confident, when the Spirit of Faction subsides) will secure you the Regards of the Freemen of the Province; of all, Sir, who have tolerable Understanding to observe, and Honesty to acknowledge, the Happiness of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Zeal for the Public Good, and Love of your Country, we trust, will still prompt you to exert all your Influence in Defence of our valuable Privileges; in which, we are confident, you will have the Concurrence of Mr. ALLEN, our other worthy Representative, so seasonably returned at this critical Juncture. This Conduct, Sir, and this only, will secure to you the Regards of the County in general, and of your most obedient, &c.

GENTLEMEN, Carlisle, October 3, 1764.

I RETURN you my hearty Thanks for the Honour you have done me, by your kind Address. My being continued, by the unanimous Vote of the County, as one of the Representatives in Assembly, is gratefully accepted, as a full Evidence of the Regards of my Constituents, and of their Approbation of my Conduct in the late Assembly; a Conduct, Gentlemen, I can assure you, directed according to the best Views to the Public Good, and influenced solely by the Love of my Country.

I am fully sensible of the Excellency of the Constitution, and our valuable Privileges; and it gives me real Satisfaction, that your Expectations from me coincide intirely with my own Resolutions, to exert all my Influence in Defence and Support of the same. And I am agreed with you, that the worthy WILLIAM ALLEN, Esq; your other Representative, will readily concur in every Measure, which shall appear to him conducive to the Public Good. And as his long Experience, approved Integrity, and other Abilities, render him very capable of executing the Trust you have placed in him, I acknowledge I am both encouraged and honoured by my Connections with him. I am,

GENTLEMEN, with great Regard,
Your most obliged humble Servant,
JOHN MONTGOMERY.

Princetown, September 26, 1764.

THIS Day the Trustees of the College of New-Jersey attended on the Anniversary Commencement in the New Church. In the Morning the Reverend Mr. WHITEFIELD preached on Phil. iii. 8. and, in the Close of his Sermon, gave a very pathetic and spirited Exhortation to the young Gentlemen, who were Candidates for the Honours of the College; after which the usual Exercises were performed, to the general Satisfaction of all who heard and understood them. The following Positions were disputed, viz. Mentiri, ut vel Natio conservetur, haud fas est. Lux Rationis sola Incitamenta ad Virtutem satis efficacia non præbet. Somnia non sunt universaliter inania, et nil portendentia. Nullam veram Virtutem habet, qui omnes non habet. The two last were disputed forensically in English.

The following young Gentlemen were then admitted to the Degree of Batchelor of Arts, viz, Thomas Alkin, Thomas John Clegget, William Forster, Nathaniel Hazard, John Lawrence, Samuel Leak, John M'Crery, Alexander Miller, David Platt, Joseph Smith, Thomas Fredwell, James Tuttle, Andrew Wilson, William Woodhul. The following commenced Master of Arts, viz. The Reverend Messieurs John Strain and Nathan Kerr, and Messieurs David Caldwell, Thomas Henderson, John Leferty, and James Thompson. Also the Honorary Degree of Master of Arts, was conferred on the Reverend Mr. David M'Gregor."

From Fort Penn, in Northampton County, we have Advice, that Lieutenant Dunn, of the Jersey Troops, on the 20th of last Month, set out with a Party of Eleven Men, in order to try if he could fall in with any Indians on the Frontiers of this Province: That about Wyoming he found many Tracks of Indians, and four Cabbins, which he thought were made about ten Days before; and afterwards saw two Cannoes coming down the River, with three Indians in them; upon which his Men fired, and wounded one or more of them, there being a good Deal of Blood in one of the Cannoes, which the Enemy left behind them: That they soon after saw two more Cannoes coming down, in which were seven Indians, one of which presented his Piece at the Party, when the Lieutenant immediately fired at him, and saw him fall in the Water; that the other Indians then pushed for the Shore, and our People having sunk the two first Cannoes, and the Water being deep, could not cross the River. The Party found in the Cannoes some Powder, a Firelock, a Number of Mockasons, a considerable Quantity of Bread Corn, two Blankets, and a Coat.---We are also informed that the Enemy had made large threshing Floors at Wyoming, and threshed out the Wheat the New-England Men left there: And that this Information had alarmed the Inhabitants so much above Fort Penn, that some Families had left their Places.

Our last Accounts from Pittsburgh are, that all the Forces had got safe there; and that Colonel BOUQUET, with 400 Men, had crossed the Ohio, where he was encamped, waiting the Arrival of a Number of Voluntiers from Virginia, hourly expected.

"Taken by the Indians, from Cumberland County, May 21st, "1758, a certain Mary Campbell, then in her 10th Year, red "haired, and much freckled. Her Father hearing that she is "now at Albany, and being unable to go so far, begs that she "may, by all good People, be helped on her Way to him, as he, "and her aged Mother, are very desirous of seeing her."

NOTICE is hereby given, that any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall have Occaſion of any Inſtruments of Writing to be drawn, either in Engliſh or Dutch, may be ſerved with the quickeſt Diſpatch, and upon reaſonable Terms, by the Subſcriber, living in York-Town. HENRY HARRIS. *

By Captain FALCONER, arrived here from London; and Captain CURTIS, arrived at New-York, with Ordnance Stores, from Plymouth, we have the following Advices.

GENOA, July 21.

THEY write from Madrid, that his Catholick Majesty, being determined to augment his forces, has wrote his Ministers in the Courts of Germany, to raise men with the consent of the Sovereigns at whose Courts they reside, and send them to Spain.

Marche of Brandenburgh, Aug. 2. The arrival of the Princess Radzivil at Breslau is confirmed; and this Lady is treated there with all the distinctions due to her birth and sex.

According to the latest advices from Warsaw, several Magnates, who assisted at the Dyet of Convocation, do not despair of making an impression upon Count Branicki, by laying before him the motives which ought to engage him to take part in the general Confederacy, and by shewing, that he would persist in vain in opposing those decrees, which have proceeded from the soundest part of the States of the Republic.

Mittau, July 26. Before the Empress of Russia left this city the 24th instant, she again assured the Duke our Sovereign, that she would firmly persist in her resolution to employ her good offices for maintaining him and his male issue in possession of the Dutchies of Courland and Semigallia; and her Imperial Majesty added, that she no way doubted but that the future King of Poland would fully ratify the Decree made by the Dyet of Convocation on this subject.

Dantzick, Aug. 4. The grand Confederacy formed in consequence of the resolutions of the Dyet of Convocation, continues to gain a superiority over the party of Count Branicki, Grand General of the Crown, that it will perhaps be needless to increase the number of Russian troops in Poland.

Vienna, Aug. 4. From the recalling of our Ministers at Warsaw, we must infer, that our court, like that of France, does not approve of the conduct of the Dyet of Convocation, nor looks upon it as an Assembly representing the body of the republick; but whether they will acknowledge a future King, chosen according to the desire of said Dyet, we shall know in about a month. In the mean time, sensible people here are of opinion, that neither the majority of the Poles, nor the Russians and Prussians, need be uneasy about what humour our court and that of Versailles may be in.

Warsaw, July 30. All imaginable precautions are taking here, in order to render the august ceremonies of the election and coronation of the new King equally pacific and magnificent. In regard to the former, 3000 Russian troops are to be disposed in the vicinity of this capital, as are also the troops belonging to the nobility, who have entered into the Grand Confederacy, and amongst these, the numerous corps raised by Count Potocki. In reference to the latter, several equipages and horses daily arrive. A rumour is spread, as if Count Branicki intended to appear with his Adherents, at the Election, but this is much doubted. Prince Radzivil solicited the Palatine of Wolhinia to join him, which he having positively refused, the Prince said, since I can have no relief from Christians, I must seek it from Infidels, and thereupon retired into the territories of the Grand Signior, or at least to the frontiers.

Paris, August 10. Within these last three days no less than 18 different couriers have been dispatched to Madrid.---All is hurry and confusion at Versailles: Expresses are every moment sent to the different seaports; and if some whispers are to be credited, we are on the eve of a new rupture with the most formidable of our neighbours. This, and the distractions which are but too justly apprehended in Poland, threaten to deluge Europe afresh with blood, and throws an uncommon air of dejection over this metropolis, which was just beginning to recruit from the miseries of the late war.

From the Vistula, August 3. According to some of the last advices from the frontiers of the kingdom, Prince Radzivil, with the remains of his troops, is in Turkish Walachia, and seems to have a design to join the corps of Count Branicki, Grand General of the Crown, who still keeps on the borders of Hungary. Other advices agree, that the said Prince is in Walachia, but add, that his troops have been partly made prisoners, and the rest dispersed.

Stockholm, July 31. The King has sent orders to all commanders of Regiments, to send him forthwith an exact list of their present number of men, and to compleat their respective corps as soon as possible. His Majesty has also ordered the intendants of the baggage and stores of the army, to keep in readiness a sufficient quantity of the same, to the end that the troops may immediately take the field in case of need. We are much puzzled to account for the motives to these orders.

Naples, July 24. The number of persons that daily die in this city does not now exceed one hundred; but the distemper daily increases in the other cities and towns.

Hamburgh, Aug. 10. Letters from Warsaw bring advice, that the Prince Primate of Poland, and the grandees of his party have written to the Empress Queen, praying her not to grant a retreat to Count Branicki, nor to the bishop of Cracow, who is gone off from his residence with the Regalia of the Crown: Assuring her Majesty, that if she acquiesces not in their humble request, they shall be under the sad necessity of entering both themselves and their allies into her territories, and of seizing there those enemies of the republick. The same letters add, what is very credible, that her Majesty has not yet given them any answer. They do not say, however, that the Prince Primate has made the like requisition to the Grand Signior, to whose dominions Prince Radzivil is retired.

Edinburgh, July 11. The following is the genuine copy of a letter from Dr. Anderson (one of the unhappy gentlemen massacred by order of Cossim Cawn) to his friend Dr. Davidson, dated Patna, October 6, 1763, the day on which he was cut off. There appears in it a fortitude and composure (under so dismal a prospect) that would do honour to the greatest names, antient or modern.

DEAR DAVIDSON,

"Since my last, his Excellency has been compleatly defeated, and in consequence obliged to retreat to Jaffier Cawn's garden yesterday, and purposes coming into the city this day. Sumroo, with the Seapoys, arrived here last night, and I suppose to effect his wicked designs; for last night Mr. Ellis, and 48 gentlemen with him, were massacred, and as about an equal number of soldiers and us yet remain, I expect my fate this night.

"Dear Davidson, this is no surprize to me, for I expected it all along; I must therefore as a dying man, request of you to collect and remit my estate home as soon as possible; and write a comforting letter to my father and mother. Let them know I die bravely, as a Christian ought, for I fear not him who can kill the body, and no more; but I rejoice in the hopes of a future existence, through the merits of my blessed Saviour. Dear Davidson, do not be too anxious about a fortune; let mediocrity satisfy you; and go home and comfort your friends and mine. Endeavour to recover Mr. Ellis's money, if possible; but I believe the 14,000 rupees in Mr. Hanwick's hands are safe, which will be a help to my poor friends. You may give Nicholas 200 rupees. If you can provide for him do it, he is a good boy. Now, dear friend, I take my leave of you, hoping that friendship will still subsist; for why may not friendship subsist in a future state? Friendship, founded on virtue, must subsist for ever. Fare you well, and may God give you satisfaction in life, and joy in death! Yours affectionately.

"Signed, WILLIAM ANDERSON.

LONDON, August 7.

When Capt. Sampson was brought to the Bar, on being asked, whether he would accept of his Majesty's pardon, on condition of going abroad for life, he, in a very genteel and polite manner, addressed himself to the Court in the following terms:

"My Lord,

"It is entirely above my comprehension, to express the gratitude and thanks I owe, for such an extraordinary mercy to an unfortunate young man, whose life was forfeited to public justice.

"I most humbly accept of the preferred terms, and will never cease to pray for the eternal happiness of my most benevolent King, thro' whose most gracious mercy I now exist.

"Words cannot, my Lord; yet my future conduct shall demonstrate, that it may not be amiss sometimes to temper justice with mercy.

"And I most humbly return your Lordship, and this Honourable Court, my most grateful thanks for the trouble they have been at, and for their generous behaviour to me."

The report that the French Court intends to send a fleet into the Baltick, in order to support the party in opposition to the proceedings of the Polish Diet of Convocation, seems improbable, unless France is sure of having her fleet joined by the Danes and Swedes; in which case they might give Russia and Prussia a good deal of trouble in Poland, provided Austria also co-operated with the French, who alone can have no weight with the Poles, as matters are now circumstanced. But, according to the late declaration of the Othman Porte, we cannot see how even a league between France, Austria, Sweden and Denmark, could carry the point in Poland against the Russians, Prussians and Turks; for it is remarkable, that the Grand Vizier has transmitted his letter to the Poles in the opposition, by the channel of the Russian Minister at Constantinople, and concludes it with seriously advising them, to take such a course as they may have no cause to repent of hereafter.

August 13. It is now said there is a coolness between the Courts of France and Prussia, on account of some late political proceedings of the French.

A report is pretty current at the East end of the town, that a certain very great personage lately expressed a desire, that the importation of French manufactures might be made Felony the next meeting of the Parliament, and that the wearers of the minutest article should either be fined a large sum, or imprisoned 6 months.

According to private letters from Warsaw, Prince Radzivil and his forces being surrounded in the Fens of Plosk, his Highness had intimated a desire to treat, upon which a cessation of hostilities had ensued. One of the Princes of the House of Lubomirski returned to Warsaw, signed the Confederacy, and has reconciled himself to the House of Czartorinski.

The five English sea officers whom the Empress of Russia has taken into her service, have all superior ranks to those they held in England. Captain Douglas, who is one of the number, is made a Vice Admiral. It is stipulated in their engagements, that they are to have the liberty of returning to their own country when they shall think proper.

The King of Portugal is raising a regiment of artillery, which is to be composed of ten companies of 60 men each.

We are informed that a very strong Memorial was on Saturday morning sent off for France, touching the full payment of the Canada bills to English subjects, whose property in this kind of currency is said to amount to four hundred thousand pounds sterl.

There is now a scheme to circulate a large number of Bank notes of an inferior value, among the respective commercial provinces of North America; the notes to bear a small premium, for the greater encouragement of trade.

They write from Cadiz, of the 12th ult. that the rovers of Barbary had been of late very troublesome on that coast; that all the ships which have not proper passports, are in danger of being taken. The said cruizers are often seen to the N. E. and S. S. E. about four or five miles off that shore.

An Algerine galliot is taken by the Spaniards, and carried into Carthagena, after a sharp action, in which ten of the Moors were killed, and eleven wounded.

Letters from Warsaw of the 28th ult. advise, that the Dyetines were to be opened at that metropolis on Monday the 30th ult. by the Sieur Sabolewski, Chamberlain of Warsaw; they add, that the Palatine of Wilda, Prince Radzivil, with his forces, had passed the district of Mobylow, and had taken the route for Choczim; whilst other letters mention, that a courier was arrived at Grodno from the Russian General Prince Dolgorucki, with an account, that he had come up with the troops of Prince Radzivil, between Lubies and Jenua, where he had made most of the Waiwode's army prisoners, with 16 pieces of cannon, and 20 waggons laden with effects.

They write from Cadiz, that the Salletines had taken three French ships, two from the Islands, and one from Nantz, all three bound for Marseilles with grain.

The settlement of St. John's island, which for some time past, seemed to have been dropped, we are now informed, is again under consideration, but on a plan much more constitutional, than by military tenures.

By some letters from Petersbourg we have been informed, that several tumults and commotions have been occasioned in that city, by the rumour of a marriage being intended between Major Orloff, of the life-guards, and a person of the highest rank in the Empire. This rumour was grounded upon some odd appearances; but it has now given place to another, which only changes the person, and supposes that a firm union between two northern Crowns, of which one is yet vacant, will be soon formed by the tender bonds of wedlock. The progress of a splendid court thro' certain northern provinces, is said to be performed with a view to this important event; that court thinks it expedient, no doubt, to strengthen its interest on all sides, and thus to prepare itself, as well as is possible, against the Instability of human things.

This day a cabinet council was held at St. James's.

It is a matter past all doubt that the great commoner has lately been consulted at court; a circumstance that must be left to the speculations of our various readers.

It is now said the Irish markets are speedily to be opened, in consequence of a resolution lately taken to stop the further exportation of provisions from that kingdom to either France, Spain, or Holland, or any of their Settlements in the West-Indies.

Extract of a Letter from Berlin, July 27.

"It should seem as if there was some coolness betwixt our Court and yours, as I am well assured that not long since it was expected that the Duke of York would have passed some days here before he returned home, and that the Hereditary Princess of Brunswick, his sister, would have come hither to have met him; whereas now it is asserted that he will proceed directly by sea to England from Genoa, where it is said a fleet waits for him. Couriers do not arrive so frequent from London as they used to do, neither are so many dispatched thither from hence.

"The thoughts of our active Monarch are said to be greatly engrossed by the affairs of Poland, and he will undoubtedly be in Silesia, near the borders of Poland, when the Diet of Election is held, about which time, we hear, there will be a general review of all the troops quartered along the Oder, which now amount to a considerable number, and if occasion should be, a train of artillery might soon be formed from Schweidnitz, and other garrisons. At all events his Majesty, in conjunction with her Imperial Majesty of Russia, is determined to support the Polish Grand Confederacy, in their freedom of Election, and is well pleased at the resolution, lately taken, that none but a Piast shall reign. Count Poniatowski, bids, they say, fairest for the throne. Prince Lubomirski has not yet many partizans, tho' all loyal Prussians, copying what they take to be the sentiments of their King, wish that the Prince Czartorinsky may be elected. It is impossible to determine what turn matters may take before the Poles mount their horses, in order to proceed to the important business."

August 14. Letters from Madrid, July 10, say, "From the frequent arrival of couriers, and the profound silence observed in relation to their dispatches, it is judged that there are some serious affairs on the carpet; and the more so, as the court is augmenting its forces by sea and land, and ships of war are building in all the yards of the kingdom with more ardour than ever. Besides we think we perceive a coolness between two foreign Ministers; and it is even reported, that one of those ministers, who is but lately arrived, will soon receive orders, if he has not already, to return home. Be that as it may, it is certain that we look not with a good eye on the close connection formed between two courts, one of which, by means of its conquests, and acquisitions during the last war, and by the treaty of peace, seems to want to establish in America a superiority, which, if not prevented in time, may, in the sequel, annihilate the empire of the Spaniards in that part of the world."

August 15. Yesterday it was currently reported, that an express was arrived at the Admiralty with advice, that the Algerines had taken four English ships.

Letters from Leghorn, and other parts of the Straits advise, that the Algerines are in extreme want of provisions; so that it is supposed that the English ships, said to be taken by them, are chiefly loaded with corn.

We are told, that there neither is, nor ever was, any scheme proposed for appointing an Archbishop, or more than four Bishops in our American plantations; or for placing them elsewhere than in the episcopal colonies, or for giving them any authority in civil matters, or over any Dissenters from the Church of England, or which may be grievous to any members of that Church; or for levying any tax in any place, in order to their support.

We are informed that the Attorney, in behalf of a Noble Personage, has assured the Plaintiffs, in the cause relating to the imprisonment of the Rev. Mr. Entick, Arthur Beardmore, Esq; and the rest of the parties taken into custody concerning the printing of the Monitor, that appearances will certainly be entered next term in the Court of Common Pleas, to the several actions that have been long commenced against the said Noble Personage, on account of the said parties imprisonment.

On Friday two more ships arrived at the Isle of White with Palatines, bound to Philadelphia.

Extract of a Letter from Warsaw, July 29.

"The situation of our affairs being much perplexed, must soon draw to a crisis; 3000 Russian troops are arrived in this neighbourgood from Lithuania, and a great number of our national forces are returned, and have had quarters assigned them in the little towns and villages round this capital. The Sieur Branitzky is arrived here. The Bishop and Castellan of Cracow are still at Lublou; and it is doubted whether they will be here at the general Diet of Election. It is said the Palatine of Cracow will join Prince Radzivil's forces."

Advices from Dresden say, that a Committee of Council has been appointed to draw up a state of the benefits which the Polish nation has received from Saxony, in order to support the demand of a million of crowns which the Senate of Poland undertook should be paid to the heirs of the late King, in case, at a new election, the Crown should pass into another Family.

By letters from Gibraltar, we hear, that the Spaniards have withdrawn their regular troops from the neighbourhood of that town, and supplied their places with militia.

We hear that several frigates will soon be put into commission, and sent to the West-Indies, being thought to be of more service in that part of the world at this time than larger ships.

The Lords of the admiralty have appointed Charles Howard, Gent. to be Marshal of the Vice-Admiralty Court for all America.

A great number of Stone-masons are embarked at Liverpool for the two Floridas, where, it is said, several important places of strength are to be erected on the frontiers of those provinces.

They write from Holland, that some Germans who were lately in England, and applied for a passage to the new settlements on the Government's account, which was denied, have infused such disadvantageous notions of British encouragement, that the Agents now abroad to engage foreigners find great difficulty to wipe them off.

As the Indians make their attacks by surprize, on single families, and having murdered men, women, and children, escape through unknown ways, and their track in the woods is soon lost by their pursuers; it is thought, if the breed of true Blood hounds could be once obtained there, they would be of great use in such pursuits; and by discovering the enemy in their retreats, give our people frequent opportunities of coming up with them, and recovering the captives and plunder, and thereby more effectually discourage their attempts, and induce them to sue for, and more faithfully keep, peace with us; and that during the war, such hounds, by discovering the Indians ambuscades, may be the happy means of saving the lives of many of our poor countrymen. It is proposed, therefore, to furnish every scouting party of the soldiers, appointed to guard the frontiers, with some of these hounds.

It is said a stop will be put next session to the farther exportation of corn spirits to North America.

It is said that a Bill of Pains and Penalties, superior to any thing of the kind hitherto in force, will be carried into execution next sessions, against any subject of his Majesty who shall be convicted in the future importing vending, or encouraging foreign manufactures, in prejudice to those of our own kingdom.

The present declining state of the British silk manufacture, we are credibly informed, has, for some days past, been under the most serious consideration of an august Meeting; the result of which, it is hoped, will be some necessary steps taken to retain the ballance of this valuable trade in our own hands.

Some letters just received from Mr. Wilkes in France, seem greatly against those Gentlemen, who are said to have laid considerable betts of his speedy return to England; as not the least mention is made in any of them of such a design.

Great part of Mr. Wilkes's estate, near Aylesbury, is purchased by an eminent Printer of this city.

They write from the Banks of the Weser, of the third inst. that a certain Power had desired liberty for the navigation of his subjects ships up that river; but as it is no ways comprehended in any Treaty subsisting between that Monarch and the neighbouring Princes and city of Bremen, such a demand, it is thought, will not be allowed.

August 16. Advice is received from Petersburgh, of the discovery of some schemes of consequence there (tending, as supposed, to a revolution) since the Empress has been on her journey to Riga; and it is even reported that a young Prince, who had been a long time in confinement, has been put to death; but this last report we have reason to hope is not true.

The Spaniards are fitting out a squadron for Vera-Cruz, which is to sail the beginning of next month, and will carry a great quantity of arms and ammunition of all kinds. Several Generals, we are told, are to embark on board this squadron, as well as a considerable corps of troops, to fortify that possession, and secure it from all insult.

A great Number of Journeymen Hatters have, within these few Days, engaged themselves to go to Montreal and Quebec, a Manufactory of Hats being to be established at each of those places.

There is now a talk that an old 60 gun ship is to be stationed for three years in the gulph of Honduras; to ride commodore, and as guardship to the British logwood cutters on the Spanish main.

August 17. Letters from Holland advise, that the Genoese Minister at the Hague, has lately made application to the States General, for succours against the Corficans, pursuant to treaties subsisting between the two republics.

They write from Amsterdam, that the affairs of the de Neufvilles are intirely settled; that their creditors have received 80 per cent. and that they now carry on their business as formerly.

We hear that Mr. Harrison's time piece is to be tried on board the first Dutch man of war which sails for the West Indies, in order, if it answers as well as on a late trial, to entitle that gentleman to receive the bounty offered by the several states for the discovery of the longitude.

August 18, Private letters by the Holland mail vary much in relation to the news from Petersburgh. Some say, that Prince John is murdered in the castle, where he had been long confined; that a party came to the guard of the castle, and demanded his release, when the officer of the guard told them, that if they were determined to have him, they must receive him dead, for his positive orders were never to let him go out alive. But according to some letters, it is doubted whether there is the least truth in any part of this story.

Advices are said to be arrived from Petersburgh, that some powerful persons there, taking advantage of the absence of the Empress, who is making the tour of her dominions, had set up the young prince Paul Peterowitz, aged ten years, on the throne; but that the more powerful party had conducted the Prince to a strong castle, where he remained when the advices came away, and all things were quiet. This, it is thought, will hasten the Empress's Return to Petersburgh.

It is now said the Court of France hath finally refused to reimburse any sums of money expended so generously by Great-Britain, in the cloathing and maintenance of their prisoners during the late war.

We are informed, the result of some late weighty conferences held on the Honduras affair, was, that proper instructions were this week dispatched to the governors and commanders in the West-Indies, in case of any future molestation to his Majesty's subjects in those parts; and as soon as well attested accounts are received of the loss sustained by the British logwood cutters, the same are to be transmitted to the court of Madrid, where satisfaction will be insisted upon without further delay or equivocation.

There is a report current, that the Spaniards are fortifying the island of Heneago, one of the Bahama islands, in the windward passage.

By letters received from Portsmouth and Plymouth on Tuesday last, we are informed, that there are a great number of ships of the line ordered to be got ready with all expedition at the several Yards, and likewise stores of all kinds for them; as the present ministry seems to be determined at all events to have them put in a proper state for the sea service; but it is a question whether they will be ready so soon as they are wanted, especially for want of seamen.

The Utrecht Gazette, of August 14, informs us, that in the last Conference Mr. Pitt had with his Majesty, he earnestly pressed for a revocation of the late tax on cyder and perry: But they do not take upon them to say what regard his Majesty paid to the solicitation.

By the Cruttenden East-Indiaman, Captain Bowler, from Bengal, we learn, that Manilla is not yet delivered up to the Spaniards, owing to the ship having lost her passage that was dispatched there.

An experiment was made in Piccadilly, on Saturday, by two natives of France, in order to make their fine soap which is made at Rouen; and, as they succeed, a large Soap-house is going to be erected, to carry on that manufacture.

They write from Lipstadt, that the chapter of Osnabrug, had sent circular letters all over Germany, touching its difference with the regency of Hanover about their Bishop.

It is said that a bill will be brought in next session, to entitle a defendant to damages and costs, in cases of false informations or vexatious actions, at the suit of the crown.

August 21. A private letter from Warsaw, dated the 29th ult. advises, that the relation Dyet was opened there very quietly on the 23d ult. but that it was thought it would not continue so long, Count Branicki having given orders to his army and adherents to march for that metropolis, to be present at the said Dyet. In consequence of which, the Prince Primate's party are putting themselves in a posture of defence, having a large body of Russians to assist them. In the mean time these proceedings have thrown the Inhabitants of that capital into great consternation, dreading the fatal effects which will probably ensue.

A letter from Brunswick says, that the Serene family of Brunswick in their return thither from Berlin, proceeded by short stages, in order to render the journey more easy to her Royal Highness the Hereditary Princess, whose pregnancy is certain, and will be soon declared. This amiable Princess, whose candour, goodness, affability, and good sense, captivate the love and admiration of all who approach her, was received with peculiar marks of distinction and zeal by his Prussian Majesty.

Saturday morning there was a Cabinet Council at St. James's on affairs of great importance, at the breaking up of which three foreign dispatches were sent off.

Friday last about 200 sailors, belonging to his Majesty's ship the Grafton, went in a body to the house of their Chief Commander, in regard to the prize-money due to them for taking Pondicherry, the rich Spanish prize Le Nostra Signora, and the Manillas, when that brave officer promised all the redress in his power. If some expedient could be thought of, for the ready payment of the prize-money to these gallant fellows, there would be no occasion for issuing Press-warrants on any emergency.

Last letters from Great Poland advise, that the relation Dyetines of the Palatinates of Posen and Kalisch were peaceably concluded at Szrede, on the 25th ult. when Prince Sulkowski, Duke of Belitz, with some others of the Nobility, and 36 Nuncios, signed the general Confederacy agreed to at Warsaw, by whom, and others of the greatest family, joining the Warsaw Confederacy, it is hoped the Election Dyet there will meet with success, and a happy issue.

Saturday last the following Things were sent in order to be embarked as a present from the King of Great Britain to the Emperor of Morocco, viz. A chariot, two musical clocks, a cedar chest of carpenter's tools, one box of linen, and one of woollen.

Fresh instructions are preparing, to be forthwith sent to the several commanders of our ships of war on the West India station.

The settlement of that extensive tract of land between New-England and Quebec, so advantageously situated in the center of the fur trade, has for some days past been under consideration.

A new negotiation is said to be on the tapis between the Ottoman Porte and the Court of Berlin.

Letters from Vienna say, that the difference between the Imperial court and that of Naples, is happily adjusted; in consequence of which, a marriage will soon be set on foot, between the King of the two Sicilies, and one of the Archdutchesses.

A Large and complete Aſſortment of Drugs, Simple, Chymical, and Galenical, Shop Mortars of all Sorts, Searches, Vials and Corks, Gally Pots, Syringes, &c. &c.

The Subſcriber propoſes ſupplying Practitioners with Medicines nearly as cheap, if not wholly ſo, as they could by importing them in the ſmall Quantities, commonly ſufficient for the moſt extenſive Practice, and what is often of more Conſequence, no riſque of Diſappointment.

The Medicines are immediately from a Wholeſale Store in London, genuine and freſh, and Gentlemen may depend on their not being adulterated in the Country.

Gentlemen who have large Families, and live at ſuch a Diſtance from any in the Practice, it being both ſo inconvenient and expenſive to call a Doctor, that it is either delayed too long, or let alone altogether, to the irrecoverable Loſs of thoſe concerned, may be ſupplied with Medicine Boxes, with printed Directions, wherein the Diſorders moſt common, and ſuch as will not admit of delay, are deſcribed, whereby may be avoided what is common to one unacquainted, of miſtaking one Diſorder for another, and adminiſtering improper Medicine. Theſe Directions are the Fruit of 9 or 10 Years Experience, and ſtrict Obſervation, after a regular Education and Study in that Profeſſion in Edinburgh; afterwards an Opportunity of ſeeing the Practice of ſeveral Phyſicians in London; and the remaining Time in this Country, where he has had the Advantage of knowing Doctor Lyon's Practice, a Gentleman of long Experience in this Country. Thoſe who are pleaſed to employ him in the Practice, may depend on being ſerved in the beſt Manner, and on the eaſieſt Terms, and as he has an Aſſiſtant bred in Britain, one or other will always be at home.

Alſo all Sorts of Colours, either dry or ground in Oil, commonly uſed for Houſe or Coach Painting, and all Sorts of Bruſhes may be had as above; and all the Branches of that Kind of Painting and Gilding well executed by a compleat Hand he has engaged, educated at Home, on very eaſy Terms; likewiſe all Sorts of painted Oil Cloths for Rooms, Paſſages, and Stairs.

The Subſcriber has about 100 Acres of Land, with a commodious Dwelling-houſe, and all other neceſſary Houſes, ſituate at the Head of Buſh River, to ſell; alſo a fine Plantation, conſiſting of about 500 Acres of choice Land, about 100 of which are cleared, and under good fencing, with a Crop of Wheat in the Ground, 50 or 60 Acres of good Marſh, which, with little trouble, may be made fine Meadow, to be lett, and entered on Chriſtmas next, ſituate in the Heart of that fine Tract of Land, lying between the Mouth of Saſquehannah River, and the Mouth of Buſh River; he will lett it either with or without the Hands and Stock.

¶ ALEXANDER STENHOUSE.

By the Duke of Cumberland Packet, arrived at New-York, in 34 Days from Falmouth, we have the following Advices, viz.

LONDON, Auguſt 23.

WE can aſſure the public, that the moſt vigorous meaſures are taking for obtaining immediate ſatisfaction and redreſs for the late outrage at Turk's Iſland.

On Monday evening a meſſenger was ſent from the Secretary of State's office to the Earl of Hertford, his Majeſty's Ambaſſador at Paris, with diſpatches of importance.

Yeſterday two meſſengers were diſpatched to the Right Hon. William Pitt, at Hayes.

A letter from Warſaw, dated the 5th inſt. adviſes, that the dyetines of Rava and Plock, aſſembled at Racie, broke up in great confuſion, not ſuffering the proceedings of the Dyet of Convocation to be read; and that the Sieur Roſciſzewſki, Judge of Plock, and late Nuncio to the ſaid Dyet, was ſo hacked with their ſabres, that he ſoon after expired; ſeveral of the members were mortally wounded, and there was much bloodſhed among their different adherents.

Letters from Warſaw of the 6th inſt. ſay, that the Dyetines of the Palatinates of Sendomir, Lublin, and diſtrict of Halicz, were broke up in great confuſion, in which ſome lives were loſt; which obliged the Staroſt of the laſt mentioned place, Count Brannitzky, to poſt away from that capital to his army, to quiet the diſturbance.

Numbers of the Nobility and Gentry, who were not expected in Town till the meeting of Parliament, are daily arriving from their country ſeats, by which it is conjectured that ſomething important is on the carpet. Thirty-two have arrived this week.

Extract of a letter from Hamburgh, Auguſt 1.

"A new ſcene of horror has ſtained the annals of Ruſſia, and furniſhed occaſion to many reflections, which prudence obliges me to paſs over in ſilence until the circumſtances and cauſes of this ſtrange event are laid amply before the Public. The event itſelf is as follows: One Mierenhoff, a Lieutenant in the regiment of Smolenſko, came with a detachment of about 30 men, by night, the 15th of laſt month, to the fortreſs of Sluttelburg, where the young Prince Ivan, or John, was removed ſome time ago, by the order of the Empreſs; from the place of confinement that has long been allotted to his unfortunate family. This Lieutenant preſented to the Governor of the fortreſs a forged order from the Empreſs, to the following purpoſe: "That her Majeſty had formed the reſolution of reſigning the Imperial crown of Ruſſia, and of putting it on the head of Prince Ivan, whom, in conſcience, ſhe was obliged to acknowledge as the lawful heir and ſovereign of Ruſſia, and that ſhe therefore commanded the Governor to ſet the Prince at liberty." The Governor, looking upon this declaration as an impoſture, refuſed to comply with it, ſhut the gates upon Mierenhoff, and ordered his men to arms. Mierenhoff, on the other hand, ſeemed to make preparations for forcing the Governor to a compliance, upon which the latter entered the apartment of the young Prince, whom he murdered in his bed with the moſt unrelenting barbarity. The firſt blow was but ſlight, and only ſerved to awaken the unfortunate Prince, who ſtruggled ſome time for his life, and even broke the Governor's ſword in the ſcuffle; but aſſiſtance was called for, and another bloody aſſaſſin appeared, who finiſhed the horrid work. When the unhappy Ivan had expired in the hands of theſe execrable ruffians, the Governor opened the gates of the fortreſs, expoſed the dead body, ſtabbed in above ten places, to the view of Mierenhoff and his company, and ſaid, in a taunting and inſolent manner, "There is your Emperor---let him now head you---he will undoubtedly make a fine figure on the Imperial throne." Mierenhoff ſeemed to ſhew leſs ſurprize and indignation at the conduct of the barbarous Governor, than might have been expected from a perſon, who had eſpouſed ſincerely the intereſts of the maſſacred Prince. He took off his ſaſh, and gave himſelf up tamely priſoner to the Governor, ſaying, with more coldneſs than ſuited ſuch a horrid cataſtrophe, That, "ſince his maſter was dead, it was in vain to make any farther reſiſtance!"---This unhappy Prince was about 24 years old. He was the eldeſt ſon of Anthony Ulric, ſecond brother to the reigning Duke of Brunſwick, and of Ann, daughter of Charles Leopold, Duke of Mecklenburg Schwerin, and grand-daughter of Czar Peter the Great. He was a Prince of great ſpirit, nor had the hardſhips of a perpetual ſtate of confinement extinguiſhed that vigour of mind, and thoſe happy talents, which ſo eminently characterize the illuſtrious houſe of Brunſwick. It is true, the hard fate of his family had ſomething in it peculiarly affecting to a generous mind; and lighter calamities have been known to impair the underſtandings of men, that were far from being deſtitute of courage and reſolution. It has alſo been alledged, that this was, in a certain degree, the caſe of the late unhappy victim of Ruſſian barbarity; but this is a miſtake, and perhaps his untimely end will be conſidered by many as, at leaſt, a preſumptive evidence, that he was no ideot. Few, indeed, have had acceſs to this Prince, and few therefore can teſtify either for or againſt his abilities; but truth, like fame, will often force its way through the beſt guarded paſſages ſo far, at leaſt, as that ſome of its reports will reach the ears of the Public; and according to theſe reports, the unfortunate Ivan, whoſe fate the voice of nations will deplore, was a Prince whoſe ſentiments and underſtanding rendered him much more worthy of a crown, than many even of thoſe who have worn one with reputation. Be that as it may, humanity will drop a tear upon his grave, and contemplate with a ſigh the uncertainty of human grandeur. It will alſo look, with the moſt painful feelings of anxiety and diſtreſs, towards thoſe inhoſpitable walls, that ſtill contain a noble Prince, whoſe happineſs it will be to remain in ignorance of his ſon's tragical end, and four youthful and illuſtrious captives, who have the misfortune to deſcend from PETER the Great."

Auguſt 25. A courier arrived here yeſterday morning from Spain, with diſpatches to our Court.

On Thurſday night died at Tunbridge Wells, where he went for the recovery of his health, the Right Hon. Henry Bilſon Legge, Eſq; uncle to the Earl of Dartmouth, ſome time Chancellor of the Exchequer, Member for the county of Southampton, and Fellow of the Royal Society.

They write from Sileſia, that the three camps which are forming in that dutchy, are under the orders of the Generals Tuenzien, Werner, and Seidlitz; where the King of Pruſſia, accompanied by the Prince Royal of Pruſſia, and his brother, the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, with his two brothers, officers in the Pruſſian ſervice, are ſoon expected to review the troops, and to make a ſtrict examination into all the fortified places in that dukedom.

It is rumoured that a marriage between the reigning Duke of Mecklenburgh Strelitz, her Majeſty's eldeſt brother, and the Princeſs Louiſa Anne, ſecond ſiſter to the King, is upon the tapis, and will moſt certainly take place.

They write from Warſaw, that in a numerous aſſembly of the Poliſh Grandees, Count Poniatowſki ſubſcribed twenty-one articles, ſeven of which are ſaid to be highly in favour of the Proteſtants.

All the Engliſh ſettlements in the Channel of Bahama, are ordered to be put in a thorough ſtate of defence.

It is now ſaid, that our naval ſtrength in the Weſt Indies is to be augmented with all expedition by fifteen ſhips of the line, to be manned chiefly with turn-overs from other ſhips daily paying off at Portſmouth, Plymouth and Chatham.

Auguſt 28. We hear from Warſaw, that three large parties, commanded by Poliſh grandees, in oppoſition to the confederacy, having retired towards the frontiers of Turky, it has been intimated to them, by orders from the Porte, to evacuate the territories of the Grand Signior immediately.

By letters from Segovia of the 30th paſt, we learn that Count Poninſky, Miniſter from Poland, who was come there to notify in form the death of the late King, had refuſed to take charge of the letter which his Catholick Majeſty addreſſed to the Republick by way of anſwer, alledging, in a note which he had circulated to all the foreign Ambaſſadors in juſtification of his conduct, that he could not charge himſelf with the ſaid letter, on account of his Catholick Majeſty's not having thought proper to conform in it to the uſages obſerved by all the Courts of Europe towards the Republick.

The guard-ſhips at Portſmouth have orders to augment each ſhip with 30 men.

Letters from Warſaw, dated the 4th inſtant, adviſe, that the Primate will certainly carry his point in placing a noble Pole on the throne; and if any diſturbances ſhould enſue, there is not the leaſt doubt of their being ſoon quieted with the aſſiſtance of the Ruſſian regiments. Theſe letters add, that as to the Pruſſians, they are not to enter on the territories of the Republick, unleſs the occaſion ſhould be very urgent, and the Dyet ſhould think fit to make a requiſition of aid; in which caſe part of thoſe forces will be diſpoſed of in garriſons, and the remainder form a camp of obſervation near the capital, with the ſole intention of oppoſing the entry of foreign troops attempting to treſpaſs on the Poliſh territories, without the conſent of the Republick.

On board the Manilla ſhip, the Sante Trinidad, bound from thence for Aquapulco, and brought to England by ſome of Admiral Corniſh's ſquadron, there are 85,112 pair of ſilk ſtockings, 20,000 pieces of India handkerchiefs, ſilk thrown and raw, China ware a large quantity, India piece goods of all ſorts, ſilk and white cloth, a great quantity of Muſlins of all ſorts, drugs, ſpices &c.

The naturalization of three foreign perſonages of high diſtinction, we are informed, is now reſolved upon.

It is now ſaid the late diſmiſſion of ſome perſons from their employments is like to be a fund for much political altercation in the enſuing ſeſſions.

It is ſaid the re-ſettlement of the iſland of Rattan in the Bay of Honduras, is now upon the carpet: This place will not only be very advantageous in the logwood trade, but alſo be a rendezvous for our ſhipping on the Muſquito ſhore, and very advantageouſly ſituated for commerce with the Spaniards.---A ſcheme of this kind was undertaken ſix and twenty years ago, by Major Caulfield, in the Litchfield man of war from Jamaica, but came to nothing.

It has been computed by thoſe who are good judges in Weſt-Indian affairs, that by cramping the trade with the Spaniards in America, we have already been ſufferers in the ſum of 100,000 hard piſtoles.

Auguſt 30. Monday laſt was the day fixed for the election of a King of Poland, in a large field near Warſaw; when it is imagined, from ſeveral concurring circumſtances mentioned in letters from Poland, that Count Poniatowſki was choſen.

Extract of a letter from Stockholm.

"Our miniſtry is at preſent wonderfully attentive to three things; the augmentation of the marine, the diſcipline of the troops, and enlarging our alliances. The two firſt will certainly add to our glory as a maritime kingdom; but whether the laſt will contribute to our happineſs as a people, or credit as a nation, time only can diſcover; however, certain it is, couriers are of late obſerved to paſs more frequently than heretofore on the ſide of France, and it is ſaid, that even a triple alliance is actually on the tapis."

Some foreign advices ſeem to intimate, that the late extraordinary preparations of the French and Spaniards in their marine, were reſolved upon, in conſequence of undoubted intelligence received from their agents in this kingdom, that a change in the Engliſh miniſtry would aſſuredly take place before Chriſtmas.

It is ſaid a quantity of ordnance, and three companies of foot, will ſhortly embark, for the better protection of the Engliſh ſettlements on Black River, Muſketo Shore.

The ſhipwrights and caulkers in his Majeſty's yard at Plymouth, now work a day and one tide, for the more ſpeedily compleating the men of war ordered to be fitted out for foreign ſervice.

Sept. 1. They write from Warſaw, that the Hereditary Prince of Courland and Semigallia is arrived there, to receive the inveſtiture of the ſaid dutchies. He is accommodated with a noble edifice, which was hired on purpoſe for his reception.

They write from Dantzick, that the Primate of Poland, in a letter lately wrote by his own hand to Prince Radzivil, not only orders him to lay down his arms, but alſo to repair to Warſaw in a limited time from the receipt thereof, otherwiſe any more delay will be looked upon as a farther proof of that nobleman's obſtinacy, and conſequently his eſtates ſhould anſwer it.

We learn from Conſtantinople, that a Pruſſian officer arrived there lately, with the ratification of the treaty concluded with Achmet Effendi at Berlin. An Aga will be ſent with compliments of congratulation, and rich preſents, to the new Sovereign of Poland, as ſoon as he is elected and crowned. His Sublime Highneſs has appointed a Commiſſary to go with the Secretary of the Swediſh Miniſter to Tunis, in order to adjuſt the differences that at preſent ſubſiſt between the Crown of Sweden, and the Dey.

It is ſaid our Ambaſſador at Paris, on preſenting the memorial on the behaviour of the French at Turk's Iſland, received but a very evaſive and unſatisfactory anſwer; having been told, according to the quibbling of that court, that it ſhould be enquired into, but required time.

They write from Holland, that three regiments of Brunſwickers were lately taken into the pay of the Republic.

It is now ſaid, ſhould the French perſiſt in their deſign of ſending troops to Corſica, an Engliſh fleet may poſſibly viſit the Mediterranean in a little time.

This week arrived in town very ſtrong remonſtrances from the Northern colonies, with reſpect to their crampt trade, by means of ſome late regulations in America:---As did alſo ſeveral petitions from the Britiſh iſlands in the Weſt-Indies: All which are preparing, by their reſpective agents, to be laid before the enſuing Parliament.

At ſome late ſales of American furrs, great quantities have been bought up by French agents, at ſo high a price as 1 l. 17 s. per lb. the beſt beaver: So greatly are they pinched to carry on this valuable manufactory, ſince the ceſſion of Canada to Great-Britain.

In conſequence of the late regulations in the marine, there are now few ports of any note, either in the Adriatick, Mediterranean, or coaſts of Italy, where regular contracts are not entered into, for the occaſional future ſupply of his Majeſty's ſhips and tranſports with every requiſite both in war, victualling, and furniture. And the ſame precaution has alſo been taken in the Baltic.

Three new ſeventy-four gun ſhips are ordered to be built in Greenland Dock with all expedition, in the room of ſome old men of war of that rate to be laid up.

September 4. On Friday night, at ten o'clock, his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York landed at Dover from Calais, where his Royal Highneſs lay that night, and on Saturday at noon he arrived in good health at his houſe in Pall-Mall; he afterwards waited on the Princeſs Dowager of Wales at Carlton-Houſe, and at five o'clock ſet out for Richmond, to viſit their Majeſties, who received him very affectionately.

Yeſterday his Royal Highneſs was at Court, and received the compliments of the Nobility and foreign Miniſters, on his ſafe arrival in England.

Saturday ſome ſailors were employed in paſting up, in all the public places, printed bills, to encourage all able-bodied ſeamen to enter on board his Majeſty's ſhips of war, now lying at Portſmouth.

Three rendezvous houſes are actually opened in Wapping, to enter 1500 men to man the guardſhips, and three ſhips of war, which are going out on an expedition.

There is now a report, from ſome foreign advices, that the King of Sardinia has of late entertained ſome thoughts with regard to Corſica; which may probably, in a little time, reſtore the inhabitants of that Iſland to their long wiſhed for independency.

We are credibly informed, that a certain patriotic member of an auguſt Aſſembly, ſtrenuouſly adviſed the ſecuring the Salt Iſlands in the Weſt-Indies at all events, and from every intent, it would be tendered our fiſhery, or the dignity of the Britiſh name in Europe; it having been fully proved, that two of theſe places are intirely Engliſh property.

A tranſport in the River is now taking on board ſeveral artillery ſtores, fire-arms, and bayonets, for Bermuda.

It is ſaid a very conſiderable duty will be laid next ſeſſions on the exportation of furrs and beaver to France, in order to prevent our being rivalled by any other nation in this manufacture.

They write from Briſtol, that the principal merchants of that city intend to ſupport with all their intereſt the independent free trade of the North American colonies, the late unnatural reſtraint upon which, from their large connections with England, has already occaſioned ſome alarms, that if not timely removed, may be attended with very melancholy conſequences, with regard to the credit of North-America.

His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York came from Genoa on board his Majeſty's ſhip Centurion, and landed at Nice, from thence his Royal Highneſs, accompanied by two Engliſh gentlemen, traverſed part of France incog. under the titles of three Engliſh lords, in ten days, one and a half of which they were at Lyons; from whence they travelled the bye roads, without going near Paris.

An account of the election of the King of Poland is expected to arrive here, by a courier, on Thurſday next.

Sept. 6. All the ſhips that are fitting out for ſea, both at Chatham and Sheerneſs, are ordered to be victualled and manned with all expedition.

The event of the election of a King of Poland is hourly expected. Theſe elections are held near Warſaw in an open field, ſurrounded with ditches, and covered over with boards; the Poles call it the Szopa, or Cola: On the day fixed for opening the Dyet, the Senators and Nuncios are preſent at the celebration of a Maſs of the Holy Ghoſt in the Cathedral Church of St. John at Warſaw; after which they repair to the Cola; and when they have elected a Marſhal of the Nuncios, they form a confederation or treaty, by which the members of the Dyet take an oath, not to ſeparate till they have elected a King, and not to acknowledge any candidate, if he has not been choſen by their unanimous approbation, nor render him any act of obedience, till he has ſworn to obſerve the Pacta Conventa, and the other laws of the kingdom.

We are credibly informed the parliament will not undergo any further prorogation after their next meeting at Weſtminſter, but proceed immediately to the inveſtigation of diverſe weighty affairs of the kingdom.

It is currently reported, that ſome conſiderable removals will ſoon take place by conſent of both parties, in conſequence of a certain ſcheme of mediation, offered by a great perſonage, whoſe good offices the heads of either will find it their account to accept, in order to reſtore the public tranquility.

Monday night orders came down to his Majeſty's dock yard at at Portſmouth, to fit out immediately the Thunderer man of war, Captain Hood, for ſea.

The St. Alban's man of war of 64 guns, lately launched at Blackwall, is fitting for ſea at Woolwich with all expedition.

From ſome late advices it appears, that the Genoeſe themſelves do not think Baſtia can hold out againſt the rebels of Corſica, till the firſt of October, if foreign ſuccours are longer delayed.

Sept. 8. A veſſel lately arrived at Rouen, and that touched in her paſſage at Gibraltar, reports, that ſhe ſaw an Engliſh frigate bring in there a Sallee Rover, of conſiderable force.

We learn from Warſaw, that the Heydamacks have broke into ſome of the diſtant provinces of Poland, and committed horrid depredations. Some new confederacies having been formed by the diſcontented Nobles, Count Branitzki, Staroſt of Halicz, marched againſt them with his own, and a detachment of Ruſſian troops, defeated, and took from them all their cannon, and has ſince obliged them to ſurrender at diſcretion.

We can aſſure the Public, that the anſwer of the Court of France to the Memorial preſented by his Majeſty's Ambaſſador there, complaining of what had lately paſſed at Turk's Iſland, contains as ſtrong a diſavowal of the violence committed there by the Count d'Eſtaing, and as explicit aſſurances of their reſolution to cultivate the continuance of the public tranquility as words can convey; and that upon the firſt rumour of this tranſaction, even previous to their receiving our repreſentations, they had diſpatched a Corvette with orders to Count d'Eſtaing, requiring an account of the motives of his conduct.

This being the anniverſary of their Majeſties Nuptials, and it being neither Levee nor Court-day, their Majeſties will receive the compliments of the Nobility and Gentry to-morrow, at St. James's, on the occaſion.

It is now ſaid, a royal yacht will ſail in a few days for Holland, to bring over his Serene Highneſs the Duke of Mecklenburgh Strelitz to England.

We are informed ſeveral coſtly ſuits are now making up for a Great Perſonage againſt an enſuing ſolemnity.

A private letter from Paris mentions, it was no ſooner certain that the Court deſigned in good earneſt to aſſiſt the Genoeſe, in the reduction of Corſica, than three foreign Miniſters proteſted againſt it; and it is now ſaid the deſign is intirely laid aſide.

Sept. 11. Letters from the frontiers of Poland ſay, That Count Potoſki, Staroſt of Sniatin, with a ſon of the Palatine of Volhinia, having formed a reconfederation in Poliſh Ruſſia, Count Branitzſky, Staroſt of Halicz, ſupported by ſome Ruſſian forces, advanced towards them, and obliged them to retire into the fortreſs of Staiaſlawow, where they ſurrendered at diſcretion. All their ſmall arms, thirty-one iron, and eleven braſs cannon were taken, and ſome of the Chiefs were made priſoners.

The Sieur de Onis, the Spaniſh Reſident to the Republic of Poland, ſet out the 18th ult. from Warſaw, by expreſs orders from his Court, on his return home.

Several private letters from Berlin, which arrived yeſterday by the Dutch mails, bring advice, that Count Poniatowſki was elected King of Poland, in the uſual form, on the 27th ult. under the name of Staniſlaus the ſecond. Theſe letters add, that the election tent was 20 fathoms long, and eight wide, lined with red cloth, with a wall behind, and a bank on each ſide; and that the Regalia, which was brought to Warſaw by the Biſhop of Culm on the 22d from Cracow, conſiſted of five crowns, four ſcepters, a globe, three gold chains, and a ſable richly ornamented.

According to letters from Saxony, the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick was arrived there, and went, on the 26th ult. to take a view of the fields of battle of the laſt war, and the fortreſs of Konigſtein; he afterwards viſited the Court of Dreſden, where he deſigned to ſtay a few days, and then to proceed, to meet the King of Pruſſia in Sileſia.

A letter from Peterſburgh mentions, that a treaty of commerce has for ſome time paſt been on the carpet with France; by which the ſubjects of the latter are to enjoy ſome particular privileges in the furr trade from Siberia, for the purpoſes of carrying on that valuable manufacture to the beſt advantage.

There are ſome advices by the laſt French mail, which mention, that the Court of Spain have determined to ef-

...ſettlement ſomewhere on the coaſt of Guiney, for the better ſupplying their extenſive American dominions with ſlaves, without being obliged to purchaſe them with ſuch vaſt ſums from foreigners.---Three men of war ſailed the 18th ult. for this purpoſe.

It is now ſaid the Weſt-Indies will not be the only quarter viſited by the men of war now fitting out in different ports of the kingdom; as the fleet at Spithead, when joined by thoſe from Chatham, will conſiſt of nine ſail of the line, and a conſiderable number are alſo rendezvouſing at Plymouth.

September 13. Letters from Warſaw aſſert, that the Caſtellan of Cracow, Count Branitzky, being arrived there, had joined the Magnates and Nuncios, and aſſiſted at the election of a King.

A letter from Leghorn has this paſſage: "Some letters from Barbary adviſe, that the Dey of Algiers ſtruck the Imperial Conſul, drove him from his preſence, and ordered him to the Brouette (or Wheel-barrow) ſwearing at the ſame time, that if he did not make ſome extraordinary humiliation, he himſelf would ſtrike off his head."

It is ſaid in ſome of the foreign prints, that the following is the manner in which the ſupplies will be raiſed in England for the ſervice of the enſuing year.

It is computed that ſeven millions will be required to defray the national expences.

The Land-tax, which will continue at 4 s. in the Pound, will amount to two millions.

The Malt-tax will be 750,000 l.

The Sinking Fund, by the great increaſe of commerce, will amount to about three millions.

There will then remain to be raiſed by loan, the ſum of one million two hundred and fifty thouſand pounds ſterling, which will be done by lottery, unleſs the whole ſum can be ſupplied by the produce of the ſale of lands in America, and the ranſom for the Manillas.

The ſpirited proceeding of the Miniſtry in the affair of Turk's Iſland, has ſickened the Minority. Their hopes of ſeeing the nation ſpeedily involved in a foreign war being fruſtrated, they are induſtrious in contriving every means to improve our domeſtic diviſions.

Various are the reports about the conſiderable naval armaments now fitting out in the principal ports of this kingdom; according to ſome, the Mediterranean is to be viſited by a powerful fleet; others will have it that Jamaica is to be the general rendezvous; from whence, after having examined into the affairs of Turk's Iſland, and ſhewn the French we are prepared for them in that quarter, the whole ſquadron will bear away, in ſight of the Havanna, for the Spaniſh Main; where poſſibly the appearance of twenty Britiſh ſail of the line may have a better effect in reducing the Spaniards to their ſenſes, than twenty tedious expoſtulations with the petty Governors of Campeachy, Honduras, or Jucatan.

It is ſaid Admiral Rodney will ſoon hoiſt his flag at Spithead, to take upon him the command of the ſquadron now rendezvouſing at that place.

It was this morning reported, that the preſent ſpirited diſpoſitions of the Engliſh Miniſtry had conſiderably affected the French funds; ſeveral of their ſaleable actions, eſpecially Weſt-India, having ſunk ten per cent. when the laſt mail came away.

A large number of ſpare gun carriages are now getting ready at the Tower, to be ſhipped in the next tranſports for North-America.

St. James's, September 11. In anſwer to the repreſentations made by his Majeſty's Ambaſſador at the Court of France, demanding immediate ſatisfaction and reparation for the acts of violence committed, on the firſt of June laſt, by the Commander of a French ſhip of war, in conjunction with other French veſſels, at one of the Turks Iſlands; the Court of France has diſavowed the ſaid proceedings, has diſclaimed all intention or deſire of acquiring the Turks Iſlands; and has given orders to the Count d'Eſtaing, Governor of St. Domingo, to cauſe the ſaid Iſlands to be immediately abandoned on the part of the French, to reſtore every thing therein to the condition in which it was on the firſt of June laſt, and to make reparation of the damages which any of his Majeſty's ſubjects ſhall be found to have ſuſtained in conſequence of the ſaid proceedings, according to an eſtimation to be forthwith ſettled by the ſaid Governor with his Majeſty's Governor of Jamaica: And a duplicate of the ſaid Orders has been delivered to his Majeſty's ſaid Ambaſſador, who has tranſmitted the ſame to his Majeſty's Secretary of State.

NEWPORT, October 15.

Letters from Jamaica, inform us, that one of the Men of War on that Station called lately at the Cape, and brought away one of the People that had been carried thither from Turks-Iſland; the Captain, on aſking the Reaſon of their Behaviour there, which was looked on as a Breach of the good Underſtanding between the two Crowns, received for Anſwer, It was done by Orders from the Courts of France and Spain. A King's Frigate was diſpatched by Admiral Sir William Burnaby to Turks Iſland and the Cape.

PHILADELPHIA, October 25.

On Sunday laſt the Reverend Mr. WHITEFIELD preached an excellent Sermon at St. Paul's Church, for the Benefit of the Hoſpital of this City, from Romans vii. 4. "Wherefore, my Brethren, ye alſo are become dead to the Law by the Body of Chriſt, that ye ſhould be married to another, even to him who is raiſed from the Dea , that we ſhould bring forth Fruit unto God." And at the ſame time took a very affectionate Leave of the People. The Collection amounted to One Hundred and Seventy Pounds, Twelve Shillings and Nine-pence. Next Day he ſet out on his Journey for Georgia.

Extract of a Letter from Fort Pitt, October 3, 1764.

"Our Army, conſiſting of 400 Regulars, 400 Pennſylvanians, 100 Light Horſe, and 250 Virginia Volunteers, begins its March this Day towards the Towns of the Enemy Indians. We go acroſs the Woods, and cut the Road for the Pack Horſes; this may make our March a little tedious, but as the Woods are pretty clear, they may, perhaps, not require much cutting. Our People are all in high Spirits, and ſeem deſirous that the Enemy would meet us. In a Week hence, you may reckon that we ſhall be at or near the firſt Town, being the Tuſcarora Town, but it is abandoned; and from thence it is about 170 Miles to the Lower Shawaneſe Town, which we are alſo to deſtroy; but there are ſeveral little Towns and Habitations to burn, before we come to that. It will take us about 25 Days to go; and we may reckon to be back again at Pittſburgh about the firſt of December."

By Captain Wells, from Turks-Iſland, we are informed, that about a Month ago an Engliſh Man of War arrived there, the Captain of which ordered the Pillars, &c. the French had begun to erect on the Grand Key, to be beat down; and from thence, we are told, went to Cape Francois, to know the Reaſon of their inſolent Behaviour at the above mentioned Place; but we have not learnt what Anſwer was received, only that it was ſaid the Captain of the French Man of War, who diſpoſſeſſed our People, was in Confinement at the Cape.

Since our laſt Captain Younghuſband arrived here with Palatines from Rotterdam.

¶ PHILIP FORD, Sheriff.

Philadelphia, ſſ.

THE 16th Day of October, 1764, perſonally appeared before me Thomas Lawrence, Eſq; one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of Peace for the City and County of Philadelphia, David Brooks, being one of the Conſtables for the Diſtrict of Southwark, who, on his ſolemn Affirmation, according to Law, doth declare and ſay as follows, viz. Whereas Samuel Bowers, being another of the Conſtables of the Diſtrict aforeſaid, did apply to him, the ſaid David Brooks, for the Copy of an Advertiſement to fix up, according to Law, for the Notice of the Freeholders, and others, Electors of the Diſtrict aforeſaid, to meet on the 27th of September laſt, to chooſe an Inſpector and Aſſeſſor for ſaid Diſtrict, which Election in the Copy I delivered him, was ſaid to be intended to be cloſed at 4 o' Clock of ſaid Day; when thoſe which I affixed in ſeveral Parts of the Diſtrict aforeſaid, ſet forth, that the Election aforeſaid was to be cloſed at 3 o'Clock of ſaid Day, according to Law; which Miſtake or Error was of my own intire making; and I do further ſolemnly declare and affirm, that I never received any Inſtructions or Information from any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, either directly or indirectly concerning ſaid Election, excepting from Joſeph Redman, Eſq; late Sheriff; but it was occaſioned by my being in too great Haſte in writing and delivering to ſaid Bowers a Copy as aforeſaid, without comparing it with the Original; neither did I know or remember, that it differed, or varied from mine, until the Election was near cloſed, as aforeſaid. And I do further declare, that I had no Intention of creating any Diſturbance, amongſt the People, as has been inſinuated, in order to defame my Character.

Affirmed before DAVID BROOKS junior. ¶
THOMAS LAWRENCE, Mayor.
